pleted 64 per cent of his passes (51-79) for 526 yards and three touchdowns.

Collins has been his favorite target. The junior end has hauled in 15 aerials for 217 yards and two TDs this fall.

Betty is extremely capable when it comes to running Maryland's diverse attack which features the "I" or the "T" flanker.

Nugent originated the formation in the latter 40's when he was at V.M.I. and it has been quite successful.

Instead of lining up in a straight-t, the Terp backs lineup directly behind the quarterback in a straight line.

The fullback does most of the work when the Terps run from the "I" and they have a pair of solid performers at this position in Rex Collins and Pat Drass.

Drass is Maryland's leading ground gainer with 216 yards and Collins is right behind with 196. Maryland's halfbacks today will be co-captain Ev Cloud and sophomore Tom Brown.

On the line, the Terps have Gary Collins and co-captain Vinnie Scott at ends, and 230-pound sophomore Gordon Bennett and junior Tom Sankovich at tackle.

Soph Dave Crossan and junior Bill Kirchiro will be the guards and junior Bob Hacker is the center.

Penn State (3-3), will go with its usual starting unit headed by Galen Hall at quarterback, Jim Kerr and Don Jonas at halfback and Sam Sobczak at fullback.

Up front, Lion coach Rip Engle will start captain Henry Oppermann and All-American candidate Bob Mitinger at end.

Eight All-Americans To Be Honored at Game

Penn State will salute its All-Americans today when the Nittany Lions meet Maryland in the 1960 home finale.

Eight of the ten Penn State players who were named to at least one All-American first team will participate in the affair. They'll be honored at the game and at a post-game dinner.

The Lions' first All-American, W. T. (Mother) Dunn, and the most recent, quarterback Richie Lucas, are unable to attend. Dunn, a former center, lives in Hawaii. Lucas will be traveling with the Buffalo Bills.

The eight All-Americans who will return, their positions, and the year in which they were selected are: end Bob Higgins, 1919; halfback Charley Way, 1920; halfback Glen Killinger, 1921; guard Joe Bedenk, 1923; center Leon Gajecki, 1940; guard Steve Suhey, 1947; end Sam Tamburo, 1948; and guard Sam Valentine, 1956.

STEW BARBER

gle as one of the nation's best linemen, will start at tackle along with junior Jim Smith.

Fireball Joe Blasenstein, who leads the Lions in individual tackles, and Bill Popp are the guards while the always dependable Jay Huffman will start at center.

Today's game marks the last home appearance for 16 seniors.

Bowing out are ends Henry Oppermann, Dave Alexander, Dave Truitt and Jim Schwab; tackles Stew Barber and Bob Gil-mour; guards Dick Butterfield, Bill Popp and Wayne Berfield.

Also, halfbacks Dick Pae, Ed Caye and Jim Kerr; quarter-

Another senior, end John Bozick, will not be in uniform today. He suffered a broken leg in the West Virginia game last week and will be out for the rest of the year.

Next week, Penn State will be at Holy Cross and Maryland will be at North Carolina.

Penn State's three wins have been over Boston University, 20-0; Army, 27-16; and West Virginia, 34-13.

Minnesota, Iowa Clash In Key Game

By The Associated Press
Iowa's top-ranking Hawkeyes take on third-ranking Minnesota today in a key clash of all-winning powers highlighting the best and most important college football program of the year to date.

Big Ten and Rose Bowl hopes will be on the block in the nation's No. 1 game at Minneapolis. That's the way it is all the way down the line for most members of the top 10 in the first week of decisive November.

Although Iowa has whipped Minnesota five straight times, the fast-striking Hawkeyes (6-0) are rated no better than a toss-up against the big, defensive-tough Gophers (6-0).

Penn State conqueror Missouri (7-0), second-ranked, faces Colorado (5-1) at Columbia, Mo., in a game that could decide the Big Eight title. The quick-clawing Tigers are two-touchdown favorites to close in on the Orange Bowl bid.

Navy, ranked fourth, seventh-ranked Washington, eighth-ranked Tennessee, ninth-ranked Syracuse and tenth-ranked Rice all will have to fight for their lives against rugged opposition.

Only fifth-ranked Ohio State (5-1), which is host to Indiana, and sixth ranked Mississippi (6-1-1), which entertains Chattanooga, can breathe easily.

The Middies (7-0) are rated only a shade over Duke (5-1) of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Washington (6-1) meets Southern California (3-3) in the battle of the Pacific Coast.

Tennessee (5-0-1) invades Atlanta for a Southeastern Conference clash with thrice-beaten but still dangerous Georgia Tech (4-3).

Syracuse (6-1), its 16-game winning streak shattered by Pittsburgh last week, hopes to find the victory combination again against Army's strengthened Black Knights (5-2) at New York's Yankee Stadium.

Rice (5-1) journeys to Little Rock for a toss-up tilt with Arkansas (5-2).

High School Cross Country Will Be Held Here Today

Penn State will host the 21st running of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association cross country championships at 11 this morning on the University golf course.

The race will attract a field of 220 entries from 55 schools. Nineteen schools will field complete five-man teams to compete for the team title.

Mt. Lebanon will be seeking its fourth straight team triumph in today's race. The western Pennsylvania school has won the PIAA crown 11 times.

North Allegheny, which dethroned Mt. Lebanon last week in the District 7 meet, looms as a serious challenger along with Marple-Newton (District 1), Lancaster-McCasky (3), and Wilmsport (4).

Marple-Newton placed second in the team competition last year, with Erie Strong Vincent (10), North Penn (1), and John Harris (3) placing third, fourth, and fifth. All but North Penn will enter complete teams in today's meet.

A wide open scramble looms for the individual crown won last season by Uniontown's Joe Thomas in a record time of 10:28.1.

Thomas has graduated, along with last year's runner-up Henry Horn of Lancaster and Bob Larson of Marple-Newton, who finished third.

The top contenders for this year's crown are Ken McClusky, Harrington High; Jim Murphy, North Penn; and John Stobie, Mt. Lebanon.

Others rated as strong contenders are Hilton McKnight, Kishacoquillas; Bill Brown, North Allegheny; and John Kleese,
