As a pass receiver, Kerr has hauled in 12 aerials for 133 yards.

His nearest rival in this depart-ment is Captain Henry Oppermann who has been on the receiving end of 11 passes for 109 vards.

Kerr will be Penn State's main offensive threat Saturday when the Nittany Lions meet an improving Holy Cross team in Worcester. Mass.

Loaded with sophomores, Dr. Eddie Anderson's team started the season with three straight losses but the Crusaders now have won four in a row and are pointing for Penn State.

Lion coach Rip Engle cast aside all rumors that State might be taking the Crusaders lightly and First Downs taking the Crusaders lightly and looking ahead to Pitt a week hence.

"Our kids know what we're going to be up against Saturday." Engle said. "It's homecoming at Holy Cross and they'll be pointing for we.
