

Panhel Workshop Set for Tomorrow

"Projection Through Reflection" will be the theme of the second annual Panhellenic Workshop to be held Sunday in the Nittany Lion Inn.

The members of the workshop will divide into groups to discuss Junior Panhellenic, rushing under the four term plan, changes in Panhellenic structure, public relations, activities and pledging.

56 Editors Hosted At Photo Clinic

The University was host yesterday to 56 photographic editors at the first Newspaper Photo-Editing Clinic.

Sponsored by the Pennsylvania Society of Newspaper Editors and the School of Journalism the one day clinic began with an introduction by H. Eugene Goodwin, director of the School of Journalism.

George S. Bush, associate professor in journalism talked on the topic, "Photojournalism for a Picture-Glutted Audience."

A discussion of picture criteria, new forms of visual materials, stimulating staff photographers to produce better photo copy and equipment was led by Quintin Beauge, executive editor of The Williamsport Sun-Gazette and president of The Pennsylvania Society of Newspaper Editors.

The afternoon program began with a demonstration and discussion of "Cropping and Layout for Impact" led by Bush. Charles H. Brown, professor of journalism, spoke on "Words for Pictures." The clinic ended with a discussion of cutlines, production problems and retouching led by Beauge.

Goodwin said that the photography editors attending were primarily from the state but the Pennsylvania Society of Newspaper Editors has members from Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey and Virginia.

Topics of discussion under Junior Panhellenic will include its purpose, activities in connection with the orientation of freshmen to Greek life and its procedures for organization.

Judith Weiss, junior in education from Elizabeth, and Mrs. Howard Wise, president of City Panhellenic, will lead the discussions in the Junior Panhellenic workshop.

The effect of the four term plan on rushing will be discussed in the workshop led by Marcia Hamm, senior in bacteriology from Camp Hill, and Mrs. R. C. Carpenter, province officer for Pi Beta Phi sorority. Rules for new quotas, cutting in rushing, parties, recommendations and registration fees will be discussed.

The Panhellenic structure workshop will debate the problems of elections, appointments and the effect of the four term system on the sorority structure. This workshop will be headed by Janet Carlisle, junior in arts and letters from Westfield, N.J., and Mrs. Arthur Anderson, past national president of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

Under the public relations workshop the problems of orienting incoming freshmen, informing high school seniors of sororities and an evaluation of Greek Week will take place. Elaine Miele, senior in journalism from Philadelphia, and Miss Helen Kinsloe, national prov- (Continued on page eight)

Folk Dance Workshop Set For Festival

A Hungarian dance workshop led by Alice Reisz, distinguished Hungarian dance instructor, will be the featured event at the "Penn State Folk Festival" to be held today and tonight in the Hetzel Union ballroom.

The festival, sponsored by the Interlandia Folk Dancers, will consist of the Hungarian dance workshop from 1 to 4:30 p.m. and international folk dancing from 7 to 12 p.m.

The Neu Bayrischer Schuhplattlers, a German costume dance group, will perform at 9 tonight in the HUB ballroom.

In addition to University students and faculty, about 75 dancers from other universities and cities in Pennsylvania, New York, Virginia and West Virginia are expected to participate. Everyone is invited to attend both sessions as participants or observers. There will be a $2 registration fee for participating dancers.

The Interlandia Folk Dancers is a University organization open to students and faculty interested in international folk dancing.

The Neu Bayrischer Schuhplattlers is an exhibition group of the University which performs traditional dances of Bavaria, Switzerland, and the Tirol in authentic costumes.

Illegal Phone, Reckless Driving Cause Probation of Two Students

Two students were put on probation Thursday night in joint action taken by the West Halls Tribunal and the office of the dean of men, Leroy S. Austin, associate dean of men, said yesterday.

One of the students who was apprehended by the Campus Patrol for reckless driving was placed on disciplinary probation for the balance of the semester, Austin said. The action was made severe because the student failed to cooperate with the Campus Patrol and was disrespectful to the patrol, Austin explained.

Austin stated that many students do not show proper respect to Campus Patrolmen. The Campus Patrol has authority in many fields and "students must cooperate or take the consequences," Austin said.

A student on disciplinary probation cannot hold offices or head any committees of student activities. Also a notation of his probation is placed by his official transcript.

The other student was placed on tribunal probation for the remainder of the semester for installing a telephone set in his room, Austin said. The telephone, he continued, could receive calls but could not be used to place calls on.

The telephone company removed the equipment but, according to Austin, left any disciplinary action to the University.

Through the Looking Glass

With a small weekend here, everyone can rest up for the fun next weekend at Pitt. (There's such a thing I've found out, as studying for more bluebooks coming up soon, but on a weekend? Profs seem to expect it!) Back to Pitt. And will that be a wild time (if you're at Pitt!). If we win, the campus won't be tame either. Whether we win or lose you'll want to prepare for the weekend by visiting Ethel.

IF YOU'RE GOING TO PITT . . .
and staying with a friend, or your friend's parents, you'll want to take along a gift. (Have to impress the family, of course.) To really show them you're with it, the ash-tray, lighter, cigarette box, and letter box set in brown leather by Paris will do it.

FOR THE PERSON WHO HAS EVERYTHING . . .
Ethel's modern wooden statues are the perfect solution. Her traditional and modern figurines will complement any decor. Really out of this world (and she will be too, when she sees it).

WANT TO SHOW HER . . .
(that special girl, I mean) that she really rates, men? Any girl loves perfume, and Ethel has just what she'll want. Those purse-size flaconettes of Tabu, Arpege, or White Shoulders are convenient as well as nice. We also have Hattie Carnegie atomizers with cologne, or Christian Dior "parfums" straight from Paris.

GIRLS! TIRED OF THE SAME OLD THINGS . . .
to wear? Change your accessories! Glamorize that special outfit you're wearing Saturday night with our cameo bracelets and necklaces. Add a new handbag from Ethel's wide selection of suede purses in grey, black, or brown to complement your outfit.

'Til next weekend and Pitt,
Gabbi
