

Powell's 3 Goals Give Cadets 3-1 Win Over Nittany Booters

By JIM KARL

An ironclad Army defense and a hard-charging right wing named Bev Powell combined for a 3-1 victory over the Penn State booters on Nittany Field Saturday.

The loss stopped the Lions' budding win streak at two and just about eliminated any possible chance for an at-large berth in the eastern regional NCAA tournament scheduled for Brooklyn College Nov. 25-26.

Powell, a stocky little wing with plenty of speed, was a one man offense against the Lions. He tallied all three goals to give the Cadets their eighth straight win against only one loss, an opening season defeat to Brockport State Teachers.

Powell opened the scoring with 14:30 gone in the first period when he broke through the Lions' defense, dribbled 40 yards down the right sideline and booted a perfectly placed shot into the extreme left corner from 10 yards out.

The half ended with Army leading, 1-0, but it wasn't long until Powell was haunting the Lions once again.

With 3:45 gone in the third period he picked up a ball that had rolled through the legs of fullback Wayne Rodgers and steamed all by himself toward the Penn State goal.

Lion goalie Dave Grubbs came out to meet Powell's rush, but the Cadet right winger zeroed in and hit the right corner to make the score 2-0.

WAYNE RODGERS
Lion captain

Four minutes later Powell got a pass in close, outmaneuvered Lion fullback John Miller, and kicked in a soft shot from four yards out.

Powell has only been stopped in two out of seven games this year. He was held scoreless in the opener against Brockport and then tallied in seven straight games until MIT stopped him last week.

Rodgers, who had the dubious honor of guarding Powell most of the time, said, Powell was the best wing he had ever seen.

"He was fast, could control the ball, and he had a hard, accurate shot," Rodgers said. "The first shot he made was perfectly placed."

State missed some excellent scoring opportunities in the first half. Right wing Glenn Ream, who saw action for the first time since the Syracuse game after being sidelined with a sprained ankle, had two wide-open shots in close but couldn't capitalize.

The Lions just barely missed getting a goal in the second period when a penalty kick hit the underside of the cross bar but bounced out.

State threatened repeatedly in the second half with left wing Lou Van Rafelghem finally getting a goal on a head ball from four yards out at 13:45 of the third period.

KORNER KICKS — Black Knight defensive ace Fred Daniloff hounded Lion center-forward Howie Farrer and Ken Link all afternoon, breaking up State rallies time and again . . . The game got so rough in the second half that the referees had to call a conference between the two teams in the middle of the field . . . A beautiful fall morning and a chance to see State upset the Cadets added up to one of the best crowds in recent years with about 1000-1200 fans filling the bleachers and ringing the field . . . The game was held up momentarily in the third quarter when four little girls persisted in throwing rocks at Army goalie Art Brown . . .

Holy Cross Coach Praises Nittanies

Holy Cross coach Dr. Eddie Anderson can't figure out how Penn State lost to Syracuse.

His Crusaders lost to the Orange, 15-6, while Penn State walloped Holy Cross, 33-8.

"I don't know how Syracuse ever beat you," Anderson said in the steaming Crusader locker room Saturday.

"Whether you wait for us every year to look good, I don't know. All I know is that you sure looked good out there today."

"We made too many mistakes but you can't take anything away from Penn State, they have a good ball club," he said.

Saturday's win was the sixth straight for State in a series that began in 1954.

The Holy Cross linemen felt the big difference Saturday was up front.

"Penn State's line is more mobile and reacts quicker than last year's line," Crusader tackle Jack Whalen said.

"They weren't as big as Syracuse, but they sure hit a lot harder," tackle Denny Golden said as he pulled a piece of tape from a swollen elbow. "I played Jim Smith and he was terrific. So was number 77 (Charlie Sieminski)," Golden added.

It's bowling time again and the rumors are starting to fly.

Penn State has bounced into consideration for the Gator Bowl. There's a big "if" connected with the rumor, though, and it involves beating Pitt in the 1960 finale, Saturday.

The Pittsburgh Press said yesterday that the Gator Bowl selection committee will scout the Pitt-Penn State game Saturday in Pitt Stadium.

The Gator Bowl has already extended a bid to Florida.

Purdue's plane scare Saturday night caused a few raised eyebrows in the Penn State camp yesterday. The Boilermakers were forced down at Madison, Wis., when an engine went bad.

The Lions just completed their last flight of the year and they're quite happy about it.

State uses Mohawk Airlines for its shorter trips and TWA for the longer ones.

Everybody on the plane is covered with at least $35,000 in insurance.

The Lions will travel to Pittsburgh this weekend by bus. They'll be quartered at the Webster Hall Hotel.

Missouri is number one in UPI's weekly football poll. The Tigers, who beat Penn State 21-8 earlier this year at Beaver Stadium, walloped Oklahoma, 41-19, this weekend.

EDDIE ANDERSON

In games involving other Lion opponents, Army and Pitt battled to a 7-7 tie; Boston U lost to Boston College, 23-14.

West Virginia lost to Oregon, 20-6; Illinois beat Wisconsin, 35-14; Syracuse drubbed Colgate, 46-6, and Maryland topped North Carolina, 22-19.

—Sandy Padwe

Cecconi Warns Panthers

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pitt Panthers began preparations yesterday for their upcoming football game with arch-rival Penn State Saturday on a note of warning.

The warning was issued by assistant coach Bimbo Cecconi, who has been scouting the Nittany Lions for the past several weeks.

Cecconi said, "They are a young squad which has been improving every week. They have matured. I don't think they have been looking ahead to us particularly. They just go out, take control and win."

Pitt upset Penn State 22-7 last year and the Lions will be seeking revenge.

DG-Phi Delt Teams Win

Delta Gamma and Phi Delta Theta joined together to defeat Alpha Zeta Delta and Kappa Delta Rho, 12-8, 7-9, 9-8, for the WRA coed volleyball title.

Unitas—Moore Combo Gives Colts Dangerous TD Weapon

BALTIMORE (AP) — "We have confidence we can strike for the touchdown at any time," says Coach Weeb Ewbank of the Baltimore Colts.

You have to believe it. The Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears certainly do.

They though they had the Colts corralled on successive Sundays only to be beaten on daring, go-for-broke plays by quarterback John Unitas and halfback Lenny Moore.

The play Sunday that stunned the Bears was one the Colts don't even practice.

"It was something we improvised at the time," related Unitas. "We have pass patterns similar to this one, but we just added a little wrinkle to make it try to do what we wanted. "On the pass play, Lenny Moore ran a regular Z-in pattern, meaning he went slightly to the right and then back to the left. What we added on was Lenny taking off for the corner of the end zone."

When Moore got there, the ball was arching down perfectly. "Man, I just gathered it in and we were home," said Moore.

It was the last play of the game for the Colts. They were on the Bear 39 with less than a minute to play, trailing by 20-17, and even a first down was 14 yards distant.

"None of us was talking about going for a field goal or a tie," said Unitas. "I had only touchdown in my mind."

His thinking was the same the week before against the Packers. With the score tied 24-24 late in the third quarter, the Colts were on the Packer 38.

It was fourth down and less than a yard to go for a first down that would keep them in business. Unitas passed 23 yards to Moore and in three more plays the Colts had their winning touchdown again.

WEEB EWBANK

Movies of the Penn State-Holy Cross game will be shown by the Varsity 'S' Club in 119 Osmond at 7:30 and 8:45 tonight. Dick Hoak, Don Jonas and Bob Hart will narrate the films. Donations will be collected.

U.S. Doubles Teams Gain In South Wales Tourney

SYDNEY (AP) — Two American and two Australian Davis Cup teams yesterday gained the doubles semifinals of the New South Wales Tennis Championships.

The top Yankee pair of Barry MacKay, Dayton, Ohio, and Karl Buchholz of St. Louis, looked impressive in eliminating Fred Stolle and John Pearce of Australia 3-5, 6-4, 6-4, 6-4.

Dennis Ralston, 18, Bakersfield, Calif., and Chuck McKinley, 19, St. Louis, advanced with victories over unseeded Australian combinations. Rod Laver and Bob Mark, the Australian doubles champions, beat Italian Davis coppers Nicola Pietrangeli and Sergio Tecchini 6-2, 6-3, 11-9. The other Australian winners were Neale Fraser and Roy Emerson.

Dodgers, Orioles to Play In Hall of Fame Game

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y. (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles and Los Angeles Dodgers were named yesterday to play in the 1961 Hall of Fame baseball game on Monday, July 24.

It will be the 20th renewal of the exhibition game.

YOU CAN'T TOP OUR STEAK SANDWICHES ORDER ONE NOW!

Bar-B-Qued Chicken Halves and Wholes 50c and up

FRANK'S HOAGIE HAVEN (Formerly Morrell's) 112 S. Frazier St. SPEEDY DELIVERY 5 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. CALL: AD 8-8381

LIKE COUNTRY AUCTIONS?

Don't miss the Jr. Women's Club auction and fashion show at the Hillel Foundation on Nov. 15. The fashion show will feature the latest in fall fashions from Hur's worn by prominent local men.

Want to go to Florida or Maine? Here's a golden opportunity at a bargain price. Thirty-five vacations valued at $3000.00 will be auctioned to the highest bidders.

All proceeds go to charity. Won't you come and join the fun?

This Ad Sponsored by

Hur's Mens Shop

144 E. College Ave.

Across from Old Main

3000 Summer Jobs in Europe

ASIS European SAFARI

WRITE TO:

American Student Information Service Jahnstrasse 66a, Frankfurt/Main, Germany

SERVICE ADVENTURE FREEDOM ACCULTURATION ROMANCE INEXPENSIVE