

Nittanies Try for Fourth NCAA X-Country Crown

The Penn State harriers, bolstered by a decisive team victory in the IC4A tourney last week, will seek their fourth NCAA crown today at East Lansing, Mich.

The Lions, along with Michigan State, Houston, Western Michigan, Air Force, Iowa and Army are strong contenders to win the team title.

The Lions won their IC4A title by beating Michigan State, the defending NCAA champs, but the Spartans have high hopes of bouncing back this afternoon.

Gerry Young and Billy Reynolds are two reasons why Michigan State is highly rated. The Spartan duo placed third and fifth respectively in the IC4A's.

Morgan Ward, Michigan State's Big Ten Champ, also could make a strong showing in the nationals.

Lion Coach Chick Werner rates Houston as State's top opponent in the NCAA. Last year Houston finished second to Michigan State due to the poor performances of its fourth and fifth men.

Houston's Al Lawrence and Jony Macy placed one-two in that meet while Pat Clohessy placed eighth. All three runners will be back this year.

Barry Almond, Houston's import from Australia, could easily tip the balance in their favor if they can come up with a respectable fifth man.

Western Michigan, headed by Jarrard Ashmore, the Central Inter-collegiate champion, also will be a strong contender for the team crown.

The entire team Western Michigan entered in last year's NCAA meet will be back this year. Last year they placed fifth.

Several other top U.S. distance runners will fight it out for the individual crown.

Billy Mills of Kansas, who finished sixth last year, will be out to improve his standing. The Jayhawk ace has gone undefeated this season in dual-meet competition.

Mauri Jormokka, Eastern Michigan's lone entry, will also be a strong contender for individual honors. Jormokka placed 16th last year.

Other runners in contention for individual honors are Larry Sweet of Alfred; Bob Lowe of Brown; Ron Gregory of Notre Dame; John Fer of Air Force; Jim Tucker of Iowa; and Lynn Bentler of Army.

Penn State will go with the same seven-man team that won the IC4A title.

The Lions' "Big Three" of Herm Weber, Gerry Norman, and Steve Moorhead are the top individual hopes.

Rounding out the Nittanies' squad are Howie Deardorff, Lionel Bassett, Ernie Noll, and Dennie Johnson.

Pitt Scores 2-1 Win Over Lion Booters

By JIM KARL

Pete Smith's second goal of the day with 1:50 gone in the first over-time period gave Pitt an uphill 2-1 victory over the Penn State booters in the 1960 finale in Pittsburgh Saturday.

Smith's first goal came with the Lions leading, 1-0, and only 45 seconds left in the game.

Howie Farrer scored State's lone goal on a penalty kick at 15:10 of the third period, and as the game progressed his tally grew bigger and bigger.

For the fourth week in a row the Lions played a tight defensive game and the Panthers had trouble mounting an attack.

But with a little over a minute to go two Panther players stormed through the State defense at mid-field and only goalie Jim Gottschling stood between the invaders and a goal.

Gottschling came up with one of the top defensive moves of the season when he charged out of the net, raced 30 yards upfield and broke up the play. Thirty seconds later Gottschling found himself faced with the same situation. This time he couldn't stop the play and Smith had the tying goal.

State outplayed the Panthers during regulation time, rolling up 29 shots to Pitt's seven, but they did an about face in the overtime stanza.

In that 10 minute span the Lions couldn't get a clear shot at the Pitt goal while the Panthers peppered the Lion goalies with seven.

Several Pitt players remarked after the game that State was really up for the contest, but after Pitt scored the tie-breaking goal they said the Lions deflated like a balloon jabbed by a pin.

The win enabled Pitt to break even for the season with a 5-5-1 record. State finished with a 3-6 slate.
