

Millikan Says Inexperience Will Hurt Terp Cagers

Maryland basketball coach Bud Millikan has little sympathy for Penn State's John Egli.

Millikan's crying towel is out because he says Maryland doesn't have enough experienced hands to cope with the competition in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

"We will be young and inexperienced and our sophomores will play a lot of ball. Some could break into the starting five," Millikan wailed as he readied the Terps for the tomorrow's opener against Penn State at College Park, Md.

Maryland, third in the Atlantic Coast Conference a year ago, finished the 1959 campaign with a 15-8 record but five lettermen are missing from that team.

All-American center Al Bunge and the Terps' second leading scorer, Jerry Bechtel, are the biggest losses and Millikan can't figure who will take their places.

Bruce Kelleher, a 6-2 letterman and Paul Jelus also 6-2, figure to do most of Maryland's offensive work.

Jelus broke into Maryland's starting lineup midway in the campaign and scored 254 points for a 12.1 average last season. Kelleher had 221 points for a 10.5 average.

Bob Wilson, a 6-10 center from Freedom, Pa., could make things a lot easier for Millikan and Maryland, but he'll have to improve quite a bit offensively.

He averaged only 5.2 in 1959 but he understudied Bunge most of the time.

Maryland expects great things from 6-6 Jack Greenspan, a sophomore who can do a fine job off the boards. Greenspan also is an excellent shooter and hits often on a corner jumper.

Bob Eicher 6-2 and 6-3 Bill

Paul Jelus

Stasiulatis are two, other sophomores who have a good chance to crack the starting lineup.

SET SHOTS — Bud Millikan, Maryland's basketball coach, will begin his 11th year as head coach of the Terrapins tomorrow night . . . His 10-year record reads 159-87 . . . Penn State coach John Egli has a 75-65 mark for six years . . . Maryland is one of three Atlantic Coast Conference foes for Penn

State this year . . . Next weekend the Lions face Duke and Wake Forest on successive nights in Charlotte, N.C. . . Maryland's Cole Field House rates as one of the finest basketball plants in the country . . . Maryland plays a 21-game schedule with 11 games at home and 10 on the road . . . They'll play in the Dixie Classic in Raleigh, N.C. during the Christmas vacation . . .

AP Selects Barber, Mitinger for All-East

Stew Barber and Bob Mitinger, a pair of Penn State linemen who helped the Lions earn a return trip to the Liberty Bowl, were named to the Associated Press All-East football team yesterday.

Barber, a tackle, was a first team choice, and Mitinger was a second team selection.

Barber will close out his Penn State career Dec. 17 when the Lions meet Oregon in Philadelphia Stadium.

The 6-3, 225-pounder from Bedford, Pa., was an end during his first year of varsity play, but he was switched to tackle at the beginning of the 1959 campaign.

Last week Barber was drafted

Oregon State Players Vote For New Bowl

NEW YORK (AP) — The Oregon State football team voted unanimously yesterday to play in the Gotham Bowl at Yankee Stadium Dec. 10, but bowl officials said an opponent has not been determined. Nor are they sure a game will be played.

"I'm glad to hear the players have voted to accept," Committee Chairman Bob Ready said when informed of the vote in Corvallis, Ore., home of the Beavers.

"But I haven't heard from the school at all. Yes, I invited them. No, the school hasn't accepted—at least, they haven't told me."

In answer to a story by the Portland, Ore., Journal that Holy Cross is a likely opponent, Ready said:

"I'd rather not comment. I hope to have something to announce later."

In Worcester, Mass., a Holy Cross spokesman said the school has received a bid for the game, but no decision has yet been made on whether to accept.

(However, last night United Press International reported that the invitation to Holy Cross had been withdrawn. UPI said Colorado was in line for the other bid.)

Gophers Named Winner Of MacArthur Bowl

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP) — Minnesota, which jumped from last to a tie for first in the Big Ten in one season, was named winner of the MacArthur Bowl as the nation's outstanding college team by the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

Penn State 16th

Minnesota Tops AP Grid Poll

By HUGH FULLERTON JR., Associated Press Sports Writer
From effigy to ecstasy in one season — that's the story of Coach Murry Warmath and his Minnesota Gophers, crowned as national college football champions in the season's final Associated Press poll.

A year ago, Warmath was being hanged in effigy and irate alumni were talking about buying up his contract after the Gophers had lost seven of nine games and finished dead last in the Big Ten.

Yesterday Minnesota was given a clear margin over Mississippi and Iowa in the final balloting to name the 1960 champions in the poll of 48 selectors. Minnesota received 17½ first place votes and 433½ points.

One voter couldn't decide between Minnesota and Iowa, co-champions of the Big Ten, and listed them as tied for first and second. Each finished with an 8-1 record, Iowa losing only to Minnesota and the Gophers to Purdue.

Unbeaten, but tied, Mississippi, champion of the Southeastern Conference, edged Iowa for second place, 411-407½ in the point tabulations. Points were awarded on the basis of 10 for each first place vote, 9 for second, etc., down to one for 10th. Mississippi received 16 firsts and Iowa 12½. The other two firsts went to sixth-ranked Washington.

Warmath, preparing to lead his Gophers into the Rose Bowl game against Washington, Jan. 2, exulted:

"I'm so proud of the team I could burst.

"For such an honor to come to a bunch of guys who took so much grief in the past and fought so hard to come back this year—why it's the greatest thing that I've experienced."

The final rankings with first place votes and season won-lost-tied records in parentheses points on 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis. Duke has one game to play.

1. Minnesota 17½ (8-1)	433½
2. Mississippi 16 (9-0-1)	411
3. Iowa 12½ (8-1)	407½
4. Navy (9-1)	262
5. Missouri (9-1)	253
6. Washington 2 (9-1)	250
7. Arkansas (8-2)	212
8. Ohio State (7-2-1)	159
9. Alabama (8-1-1)	53
10. Duke (7-2)	46
11. Kansas	40
12. Baylor	35
13. Auburn	25
14. Yale	17
15. Michigan State	16
16. Penn State	15
17. New Mexico State	8
18. Florida	6
19. (tie) Purdue	4
20. Rice	4
21. Syracuse	3

Others—Oregon (2); Tennessee, Michigan and Texas (1).

NFL to Meet Jan. 24

NEW YORK (AP) — Commissioner Pete Rozelle said the National Football League will hold its annual meeting in New York Jan. 24.

Middies, Yale East's Best; Nittanies Third

NEW YORK (AP) — Unbeaten Yale and once-beaten Navy yesterday were named co-winners of the Lambert Trophy as Eastern college football champions.

Each team received 35 points from the four-man selection committee, creating the first tie in the 25-year history of the trophy. Penn State was third in the voting, followed by Army, Pitt, Syracuse, Rutgers, Princeton, Holy Cross and Dartmouth.

Yale and Navy will be honored at a reception here Dec. 11.

Basketball Scores

NBA
Syracuse 129 Cincinnati 105
Philadelphia 122 Los Angeles 121

Rushing Smoker
at
Phi Gamma Delta
(Adjacent to West Halls)
Wed., Nov. 30 7-9 P.M.
Freshmen Welcome
Refreshments Served

Penn State Players
announce the presentation of Oedipus: King and Exile
at Schwab Auditorium
December 8, 9, and 10 at 8:30 P.M.
Tickets at HUB or Door of Schwab

BOOKS

for Christmas
Choose from our complete selection
AVAILABLE AT KEELER'S
The University Bookstore
206 E. College Ave.
Since 1926