

Army Matmen Seek Revenge

The Army comes to town tomorrow with high hopes of pulling some surprises on coach Charlie Speidel and his Lion matmen, but "Doc" has a few demolition experts who have other plans for the Cadets.

Last year, State overwhelmed Army, 31-0, in the season opener and by tomorrow night the boys from the banks of the Hudson should have that glint of revenge in their eyes.

Speidel's biggest weapon against the Cadets will be Eastern champion Johnston Oberly, who was undefeated in dual meet competition last year. Tony Scordo, Dan Johnston, Neil Turner, Jerry Seckler, Ron

Al Rushatz Dale Kuhns
Pifer and Phil Myer combine with "The Big O" to give Speidel a potent attack.

But Army won't be caught shorthanded. The Cadets have two tested stars in Al Rushatz and Dale Kuhns, a pair of Cadet footballers.

The word from West Point is that both boys will make the trip to State even though they have been wrestling only a week.

Rushatz had an 8-1 dual meet record last year and won the EIWA 177-pound crown. Kuhns, who did his high school wrestling at nearby Clearfield, saw action at heavyweight last year.

Although it's improbable that either Cadet will be in top shape, Speidel isn't discounting the possibility that Army Coach Leroy Alitz will use one or both tomorrow night.

Rushatz will have trouble getting down to his normal wrestling weight of 177 and Alitz may use either the Cadet fullback or Kuhns at heavyweight.

Under the same circumstances last year Alitz withheld both boys from action when it became evident that State would win handily.

Phil Burns is likely to get the nod at 123 for the Black Knights, with either Gary Flack or Bob Protzman (1-4-2 at 123 last year) starting at 130.

Dennie Benchoff, a junior with a 2-5 record last year, is slated for duty at 130.

Al McElhose, injured last year but impressive as a plebe, is the Stu Bischoff of Beta Theta Pi hammered out a unanimous decision over Alpha Chi Rho's Larry Wentz in the 142-pound class to advance into the quarterfinals of IM boxing last night in Rec Hall.

Robinson Set For Fullmer In Title Bout

LOS ANGELES (AP) — There will be no alibis from Sugar Ray Robinson if champion Gene Fullmer whips him in their 15-round fight for the National Boxing Association version of the world middleweight title.

"We will have no excuses," declared Robinson's manager, George Gainsford, yesterday as Fullmer, from West Jordan, Utah, remained a 3-1 betting favorite in the nationally televised match tomorrow night.

"Robinson trained harder in the last week than he did the entire time for the fight with Paul Pender," George said.

"We are satisfied with Gene's condition. He's ready and there has been no recurrence of the muscle injury in his leg," said Manager Mary Jensen.

A pulled muscle in the right leg forced postponement from the original date in early October.

This will be Fullmer's fourth defense of the title he acquired in his fight for the then-vacant crown with Carmen Basilio in San Francisco Aug. 28, 1959.

"Who did you say owns the electric company?"

People. Thousands of people. Farmers and housewives and engineers. Doctors and secretaries and railroad men. All kinds of people.

They own the electric company because they invest money in it, and thus help it grow and serve you better.

This kind of ownership makes the electric company an independent business. It's not owned by the city nor by the state, nor by any government.

And this kind of ownership means you can always be sure of plenty of electricity . . . and at a bargain price.
