Carol Sing Will Feature Trumpet Echo

Anyone walking past Eisenhower chapel yesterday at about 3:30 p.m. may have thought he'd seen everything. Until, that is, he caught sight of the girl playing her trumpet in the middle of Hortwoods.

Has the Music Department run out of practice rooms? No, the girl was simply making like an echo—for the choir singing "Silent Night" on the chapel steps.

James W. Beach, director of the Meditation Choirs, was rehearsing one of the choirs for the Christmas Carol Sing to be held next Tuesday evening. After discovering that one of the choir members was an apt trumpeteer, Beach decided to try an answering effect using the choir and the trumpet.

The result? It sounded good but the girl, Christine Burkholder, freshman in education from Mount Union, will have to stand farther away on Tuesday night. The trumpet was a little loud.

Chain Letter--

(Continued from page one) pleted, the letter is given to the new participant who is instructed to make two copies removing the name of the person he called and moving the other names up one position.

He then places his name in the fifth position and introduces the letter to two "trusted friends." The friends in turn follow the same procedure. The new participant is cautioned not to give up the letters until after his two friends have phoned the person who has just been moved to the first position.

The letter, which calls the plan infallible, states that providing the chain is not broken the participant will receive 32 calls or chances to order the liquor of his choice.

Davies to Speak On Nonconformists

Dr. Horton Davies, professor of religion at Princeton, will speak at the University Chapel Service at 10:55 a.m. tomorrow in Schwab. His topic will be "Christian Nonconformists."

Davies, former head of the Department of Church History, Mansfield College, Oxford, is a distinguished authority on the history of Christianity.

In 1943 he received a doctor of philosophy degree from Oxford and in 1951 was awarded a doctor of divinity degree from the University of South Africa.

Davies is the author of several books and in 1959 was awarded a Guggenheim Fellowship to complete a two-volume work entitled "The Theology and Worship in England." One book, "Christian Deviations," has been translated into the Chinese language. His latest book, published in 1959, is entitled "A Mirror of the Ministry in Modern Novels."

Under the direction of Willa Taylor, the University Chapel Choir will sing "How Excellent is Thy Name" by Howard Hanson for the service.

Speaking for the Protestant Worship Service at 9 a.m. tomorrow in the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel will be the Rev. P. Barrett Rudd, associate director and director of studies of the University Christian Association.

His sermon topic will be "Our Lonely Place." The Rev. Samuel N. Gibson, executive director of the U.C.A., will be the worship leader and the Meditation Choir, directed by James Beach, will sing for the service.

The Rev. Mr. Rudd began working on campus this September after serving at a Syracuse, N.Y. pastorate. He received a bachelor of divinity degree from Princeton Theological Seminary.

Last spring he was awarded a diploma in theology for his work at Mansfield College, Oxford.

Political Party Platforms

Campus Party

1. A non-profit University Co-op Shop to be set up to give Penn State students the lowest possible prices on such items as textbooks, school supplies, and possibly clothing. This has been tried and proved successful in many other Universities.
2. Voluntary R.O.T.C. program which will fulfill the provisions of the Morrill Act and which has been given the approval of the Department of Defense.
3. An investigation into the possibilities of setting up student-run, student-owned, multi-level parking areas in order that the parking problems can be alleviated. These lots could possibly pay for themselves by charging hourly rates which might eliminate the need for the bi-semester parking fees as now assessed.
4. With the announced lack of facilities on the part of the College of Physical Education, the requirements for physical education should be changed to four credits instead of two years as now stated in the Senate Regulations. This would let students under the four-term system complete their requirements for physical education in one year.
5. The following is the pledge of action to carry out these planks:
 - A. Within the tenure of office and after thorough investigation relative legislation will be brought before S.G.A., along with petitions from the student body.

- B. Upon S.G.A.'s passing the proper legislation, it will be presented to the Administration for fulfillment. If desired constructive steps are not taken within a reasonable amount of time, the following steps will be taken by Campus Party representatives in cooperation with S.G.A.:
 1. The governor of Pennsylvania will be informed by telegram of the situation.
 2. Each representative in the Pennsylvania General Assembly will be informed of the situation by mail.
- C. In the event of lack of action, the following steps will be taken.
 1. Form letters will be made up and distributed to the student body along with the addresses of their representatives in Harrisburg.
 2. The Governor will be personally contacted and made aware of the problem.
 3. Members of S.G.A. will contact representatives in the General Assembly personally.
 4. Alumni of the University will be sent form letters informing them of the situation.
 5. A petition will be presented to a representative of the General Assembly to be read at a regular session.

University Party

1. S.G.A. coordinate all student governing organizations into a central group with S.G.A. at its head, including such groups as Leonides, Town Independent Men, campus men's organizations, and community councils and area councils.
2. S.G.A. become a functioning student government by taking over judicial and disciplinary proceedings from the dean of men's and women's offices.

3. The transferral of power to grant and retract charters to student organizations from the Senate committee on student affairs to S.G.A.
4. Asking the Board of Trustees of the University to permit the Book Exchange to sell FM radios at a discount to help increase the audience of WDFM.
