

Austin Acquits 'Letter' Passers

No disciplinary action will be taken by the dean of men's office against those men who participated in the distribution of the chain letter for $7 or liquor, Leroy S. Austin, associate dean of men, said Tuesday.

Austin reported that the number of men taking part in the activity prohibits any action by the dean's office.

But Austin emphasized that any further action of this sort would result in strict disciplinary action.

Wages to Be Distributed

The University wage payroll will be distributed beginning at noon today at the bursar's office in 6 Willard.

Bursar Richard H. Baker, said that the regular payment day had been moved up since it fell on a Saturday and the office was closed Saturday.

Grad Student Dance

The Duke Morris band will provide the music for the annual graduate student and faculty Christmas dance from 9 to 12 tonight in the Hetzel Union ballroom.

Admission will be free. The dance is sponsored by the Graduate Student Council.

Career Day Applications

Applications for the All-University Career Exposition committees are available at the Hetzel Union desk. The exposition will be held April 11-12.

The Graduate School was established in 1922.
