

Temperature Dips to 8; Cold Weather to Stay

Bitterly cold arctic air brought the coldest weather of the season to the local area early this morning as the mercury slipped close to 8 degrees just before dawn.

Mostly sunny skies with a few clouds and quite cold temperatures are expected today. The high temperature will only be 27 degrees.

Clear skies and quite cold readings are again due tonight as the mercury dips to 13 degrees.

WDFM Marks 7 Years Of Campus Broadcasting

Penn State's radio station, WDFM, celebrated the seventh anniversary of its founding yesterday.

Through the gifts of the classes of '51 and '52, the station was founded in 1953.

WDFM has gradually increased its scope from purely campus centered information to programs covering the state, country and world.

Woodring Participates In Education Conference

Charles E. Woodring, assistant professor of real estate, participated last month in a conference on education for real estate in Dallas, Texas.

The conference was sponsored by the National Association of Real Estate Boards and was concerned with what to teach and how to teach a real estate curriculum.

Elections Made Legal--
