

Yost, Cerv, Tasby Tapped In American Loop Draft

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP) — Eli Grba, Ed Sadowski, Eddie Yost and Willie Tasby were the top four players picked by the new Washington and Los Angeles clubs yesterday as the American League expanded to 10-stocked clubs in an unprecedented $4,325,000 draft of talent.

Each of the two clubs chose 28 players at $75,000 each from a reservoir of 120, contributed by the eight established members of the circuit. Fifteen players of each of the eight rosters were placed in the pool. No club lost more than seven.

Washington also drafted three rookies at $25,000 each. Los Angeles took two.

General Manager Fred Haney of the Angels, who won the toss for first pick in three of the four categories—pitchers, catchers, infielders and outfielders—selected pitcher Grba of New York, catcher Sadowski of Boston and third baseman Yost of Detroit as his three top picks.

Among the outfielders, in which he got second pick, he chose Bob Cerv of the Yankees.

Ed Doherty, general manager of the new Senators, chose outfielder Tasby of Boston as his first pick. His first selection in the other categories were Bobby Shantz, pitcher from the Yankees; Dutch Dotterer, catcher from Kansas City, and Coot Veal, shortstop from Detroit.

Other established players chosen by the Angels were pitchers Duke Maas, New York; Truman Clevenger, Minneapolis-St. Paul, and Ned Garver, Kansas City; catcher Bob (Red) Wilson, Cleveland; infielders Ted Kluszewski, Chicago; Ken Aspromonte, Cleveland; Ken Hamlin, Kansas City; and outfielder Faye Throneberry, Minneapolis-St. Paul.

Washington chose pitchers Dave Sisler and Pete Burnside, Detroit; Dick Donovan, Chicago; Tom Sturdivant, Boston; catcher Pete Daley, Kansas City; infielders Dale Long, New York, and Billy Klaus, Baltimore; and outfielders Gene Woodling, Baltimore, and Marty Keough, Cleveland.

The selections took place in the American League office and were conducted by League President Joe Cronin. Each club was required to pick at least 10 pitchers, 2 catchers, 6 infielders and 4 outfielders.
