Dear Santa,

For Christmas I am asking for a lot of things I never thought about before this year. You see, I am a freshman and Penn State has changed my usual Christmas list considerably.

Keeping fraternity parties, sororities, hat societies and All-U's in mind, I've made up the following list.

Please bring me for Christmas:

A year's supply of party favors—Mugs, beach towels and crested bracelets, preferred!

More dates than I can ever accept (of course) a bright shiny pin so I will be secure.

Lots of offices and activities, so that I can get to know people and be a BWOC.

A respectable All-U (3.5 will do)—Grades mean so much when you're a freshman!

And come next semester a profitable rush. I mean a bid to a sorority, so that I can meet all those fraternity men I always hear about.

A subscription to Froth, so that I can learn what's wrong with campus politics, the Daily Collegian and the Greeks. Also, I can find out who's pinned and so forth.

A chance to have my picture in Bill Coleman's column—I want that trip to Puerto Rico.

A hat. They're so nice to have when it rains and they help to tell who's a freshman during orientation week!

And last but not least, a catering service for Collegian candidates. We get so hungry on issue!
