

'Mistakes Hurt' - Casanova

SENSATIONAL SWAN SONG—Penn State's Dick Hoak made his final Penn State appearance one to remember Saturday against Oregon in the Liberty Bowl. Hoak scored a pair of touchdowns and passed for another TD as the Lions won, 41-12, in Philadelphia Stadium. Above, Hoak (23) takes off on a six-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. At the right, Hoak winds up for a touchdown aerial to Dick Pae in fourth quarter.

 good and the Lions, who were ahead by only one, touchdown four minutes before, led 41-12.
 "How can you expect to win when you make so many mistakes," Oregon coach Len Casanova said as he remembered the two interceptions and a fumble which set up Penn State scores. "We made more mistakes today than any other game this year."
 A quick glance at the score won't reveal it, but things looked promising for Oregon early in the game.

The speedy Grayson, voted the game's outstanding back, showed why Oregon's outside attack was so feared when he led the Ducks on an 88-yard drive that consumed only 12 plays.

His 27-yard sprint got the Ducks moving and Grosz helped out with some accurate passing and good running.

Grosz finally scored from the one and Oregon led, 6-0.
 State went ahead at 2:10 of the second quarter when Jonas capped a 62-yard drive by plunging from the one. Henry Oppermann kicked one of his four extra points to give the Lions the lead, 7-6.

Both Penn State lines kept pounding away at the Ducks and the Lions found themselves on the Oregon 37 with about five minutes left in the first half.

The "Reddie" unit was in at the time and it took only seven plays before halfback Al Gursky scored from the two. Oppermann converted and it was 14-6.

Two runs by Hoak—for 11 and 12 yards—set up the touchdown.

The Lions got a big break on the next kickoff when Oregon end Len Burnett fumbled and Jim Kerr recovered for State on the Duck 26.

A Galen Hall to Oppermann pass netted 12 yards. Hoak came in on the wild card and picked up nine more to put the ball on the five.

Jonas slashed to the one but a backfield in motion penalty sent the Lions back to the six.

Here, Hoak kept and went through the left side of the Oregon line for another touchdown. Oppermann converted and State led at halftime 21-6.

The Ducks proved they weren't finished at the outset of the second half. They held State and took over on their own 19.

Grosz then showed why the Philadelphia Eagles drafted him when he was still a junior.

He picked up 17 yards on three carries and passed 46 yards to halfback Mickey Bruce, playing in place of the injured Cleveland Jones.

A 15-yard penalty helped too and the Ducks found themselves on the Lion one.

Bruce Snyder, the Oregon fullback, tried to plunge through the Lion forward wall but Jay Huffman hit him so hard that the ball bounced back to the 10 where Kerr recovered.

The Lions couldn't move the ball on the next sequence of downs and Oregon took possession on the 39.

Grosz hit Bruce again for 29 yards and Grayson cut inside end for the remaining 10 yards to cut the lead to 21-12. The Ducks missed a try for two-points and that was the last time they threatened all afternoon.

They made it interesting until the Lions went on their long drive in the last quarter but then they fell apart and State quickly took advantage.

The Lions dominated the statistics. In total offense they led, 420-360. It was 25-17 in first downs.
