

Bisons Down Cagers, 71-67

Harris' 24 Tops Lion Scorers

By SANDY PADWE
Lewisburg, Pa., Jan. 10 — Bucknell stormed from nine points behind with six minutes left here tonight to beat Penn State 71-67 despite another 24-point performance by Gene Harris.

The Lions seemingly had the game wrapped up with 6:07 left when they went out in front 59-50 on a Jake Trueblood tip-in, but Bucknell came on with a rush to hand State its fifth loss against six wins.

A highly partisan crowd of 2000 in Davis Gymnasium came to life when junior Dick Kniffin pumped in two quick jumpers to cut State's lead to 59-54 with 5:40 left.

Sam Penrose, a Bison substitute, narrowed the gap even more a few seconds later on a jump shot from the left-hand corner.

Harris, who has scored 68 points in his last three games, tallied on a lay-up to give State some breathing room, but Penrose came right back with another jumper to pull Bucknell within three, 61-58.

With 3:56 remaining, Joe Steiner completed a three-point play to tie the game.

Harris and Kniffin traded baskets and Trueblood and Bruce Babich followed suit to produce a tie at 65 with 2:10 left.

Bucknell took the lead when another sub, Larry Roman, made a 30-foot jump shot from the top of the key. Steiner converted a foul and Bucknell was in front 68-65.

John Mitchell jumped for two at 1:11 and State trailed 68-67.

In the remaining time, Harris blew a pair of fouls and Bucknell made three to clinch the win, 71-67.

Steiner was high man for the Bisons with 27 points followed by Kniffin with 16.

Trueblood had 13 to follow Harris for the Lions and Mitchell had 12.

Both teams were even from the field, with Penn State hitting 44 per cent of its shots and Bucknell 43.

Harris, a junior was named to the ECAC weekly All-Star team for performances against Colgate and Carnegie Tech last week. He had 20 against the Red Raiders and scored 24 against Tech Saturday night.

Tonight most of his points came on perfect set-ups from Mark Dumars who played another brilliant floor game.

The Lions' next game will be tomorrow night at Gettysburg. Bucknell, now 7-3, meets George Washington at home Saturday.

Freshman Cagers Lose to Bucknell

Bill Fry, an all-Stater from York, Pa., scored 30 points and led the Bucknell freshmen to a 69-65 win over Penn State last night.

The win was Bucknell's fifth in six outings, while Penn State suffered its first loss of the campaign.

Wayne Lundy, a 6-6 center from Detroit, Mich., topped the Penn State scorers with 24 points. Bobby Dahato followed with 14.

Freshman Sets 3-Game Series Bowling Mark

The highest three-game series ever bowled at the Rec Hall lanes was recorded Monday evening when Bob Krech of the High Fives put together games of 244, 222 and 212.

Krech's average for the evening was 226 and his total pin count was 678.

The high-scoring freshman from Johnsonburg, Pa., is the pacesetter in the independent league this year.

In fraternity league action, Delta Chi, last year's bowling champ, is well on its way to winning the division C title. It has already posted a 68-12 record, and only Zeta Beta Tau, with a 62-18 mark, remains in the running.

Alpha Chi Rho, runner-up last season, is 24 games behind the pace-setting mark of Delta Chi. They have a 44-36 mark.

Alpha Phi Delta with a 72-8 record holds the lead in League A, followed by Aca-cia with 57-23.

In League B, only two games separate frontrunners Phi Kappa Theta and Alpha Epsilon Pi. The leaders have a 66-14 season chart.

Triangle, with 70 wins against 10 losses is the pace-setter in League D. Trailing are Phi Sigma Kappa and Theta Delta Chi.

Pitt Tackle Mills Denies Signing Dallas Contract

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Tackle Dick Mills of Pitt denied yesterday that he has signed a contract with the Dallas Texans of the American Football League.

"I signed what they told me was an option," said Mills. "If they told me the truth when I signed that paper, I was not signing a contract for my services."

Mills said he has signed with the Detroit Lions of the National Football League and "that's where I want to play."

Mills said he called Edwin Anderson, president of the Lions, and was told not to worry about it, that the Texans would have no claims.

Tar Heels Penalized For Rules Violations

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The powerful National Collegiate Athletic Association Council handed out one-year penalties to three institutions yesterday for violations of rules in connection with recruiting and paying athletes.

The University of North Carolina and Loyola University of New Orleans were put on probation for one year and their basketball teams were barred from competing in the national collegiate championships or any of the other tournaments that co-operate with the NCAA enforcement program.

The University of Arizona was placed on probation but no additional sanctions were imposed, a lighter penalty given in recognition of the co-operation of the Arizona administration in the investigation and its elimination of certain illegal practices even before they were reported to the NCAA.

North Carolina also received a strong verbal slap for slipshod accounting methods that made it impossible to determine whether more serious rules violations had taken place.

These three penalties, coming just after Oklahoma, Southern California and Tulsa had been removed from probation, brought to 58 the number of cases in which the NCAA has imposed penalties since its enforcement program began in 1952.

North Carolina was found guilty of providing excessive entertainment for prospective basketball teams. In particular the council ruled that Coach Frank McGuire and a semi-official talent scout in New York, Harry Gotkin, has picked up entertainment bills that appeared too big and had failed to account in detail for the expenditures.
