

Now It's Gettysburg's Turn To Boost MAC Prestige

Wettstone's Dilemma Clouds Temple Meet

By SANDY PADWE

Now it's Gettysburg's turn to earn some added respect for the Middle Atlantic Conference basketball league.

Bucknell helped the situation Tuesday by coming from behind to beat Penn State, 71-67, at Lewisburg and tonight the Bullets get their chance in Gettysburg at 8.

Lion coach John Egli expects plenty of trouble from the hustling Bullets and he cites their record as the reason why.

Gettysburg has an 8-2 log including a 72-66 victory over Bucknell. Their two losses were to Temple, 63-61, and Navy, 72-53.

A bit miffed at the way his Lions blew a nine-point lead with just six minutes left against Bucknell, Egli said he might look to his bench for some second-line help.

The Lions, (6-5) have been using an average of six men a game this year but Egli feels he has some solid performers in Bill Saul and Dave Robinson who joined the team after the Liberty Bowl.

"I'm going to try and work them in there," Egli said. "They should help us out when the starters tire."

Earl Hoffman

No changes are planned for the starting five which has played surprisingly well to date.

Although his shooting is a bit off, captain Mark DuMars is still Penn State's scoring leader with an average of 17.8.

Gene Harris, who has scored 68 points in his last three games, follows DuMars in scoring with a 14.7 average.

John Mitchell, a smooth-working guard, is averaging 11 points a game while Jake Trueblood is hitting at a 10.9 pace.

Sophomore Earl Hoffman (7.7) rounds out Penn State's starting lineup.

Gettysburg's big threat is stubby Ron Warner, the MAC scoring champion last year. Warner hasn't lost his touch and is hitting at a 23.2 clip.

Little Bob Parker (15.6) also can break loose on a scoring binge and the Lions will have to watch him closely tonight.

Bill Fitzkee (8.0) is Gettysburg's center while Bill Hemming (5.1) and George Burnett (6.7) carry the load up front.

After tonight's game, State travels to West Point, N.Y., to face Army. The Cadets shocked Villanova, 64-49, at West Point yesterday.

	11 Game Statistics (6-5)
	G	FG	F	Pts.	Avg.
DuMars	11	70	55	195	17.8
Harris	11	42	25	161	14.7
Mitchell	11	53	15	121	11.0
Trueblood	11	41	37	119	10.9
Hoffman	11	33	8	84	7.7
Phillips	10	10	6	28	2.8
Fisela	2	1	4	6	3.0
Staub	2	1	3	5	2.5
Wiltner	2	1	2	2	1.0
Wilson	4	0	0	0	0.0

By BRUCE HENDERSON

Lion gym coach Gene Wettstone is a man of mixed emotions this week.

He would like to see Greg Weiss capture a spot on the team that will face the Russians Saturday night. But if Weiss does, Wettstone faces the problem of losing his star for the Temple meet Saturday afternoon in Rec Hall.

Withholding judgment on the issue, Wettstone commented, "we will cross that bridge when we come to it."

However, he did indicate that without Weiss, the Lions would be hard-pressed to top the steadily improving Owls.

Temple showed its strength last Saturday with an impressive 69-26 rout of Southern Connecticut State College.

The Owl gymnasts took five first places out of six, losing only in the rope climb.

Temple has been improving steadily in the past few years, because many of the home-grown high school gym stars are staying in Philadelphia. Penn State grads, Jay Werner and Lee Cunningham, along with sophomore ace Tommy Seward, are all products of Philadelphia schools.

If Weiss does not compete against the Owls, Seward will carry State's scoring hopes.

Against Springfield last Saturday, Seward captured a first, second and third. His first came in tumbling, which is Temple's strongest event.

In last year's dual-meet, the Owls captured the top three places in tumbling.

Temple stars, Lou Datilo, Ben Scotkins, Roger Weiner and long Bob Smith all appeared in Rec Hall last year in the NCAA tournament.

Warmath, Woodson Get Coach of Year Awards

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The American Football Coaches Association last night named Murray Warmath of Minnesota major college coach of the year and Warren Woodson of New Mexico State the minor college coach of the year.

The association said voting was close in both divisions with Jim Owens of the University of Washington and Clarence Stasavich of Lenoir Rhyne College, Hickory, N.C., finishing as strong runners-up in the respective divisions.

Bezdek Elected Member Of Football Hall of Fame

Hugo Bezdek, head football coach at Penn State from 1918 through 1929, is one of nine former and present coaches elected to the Helms Athletic Foundation Football Hall of Fame.

Bezdek, now deceased, compiled a record of 65 wins, 30 defeats, and 11 ties during his 12 seasons at Penn State. He took his 1922 team to the Rose Bowl, where it lost to Southern California, 14-3, on Jan. 1, 1923.

Churba Says He Had 4-Year Pact at Loyola

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A Pennsylvania basketball player insisted yesterday he had a four-year scholarship at Loyola of New Orleans, disciplined by the National Collegiate Athletic Association in the player's case.

Ronald Churba of Williamsport, told the New Orleans States-Item he agreed orally to a four-year scholarship with then coach Hank Kuzma and later signed such a contract. Churba said he produced photostatic copies of the agreement for the NCAA.

The collegiate group handed Loyola a one-year probation Tuesday for revoking Churba's scholarship. Loyola officials contended he had only a one-year scholarship.

At the end of his freshman year, Churba said head coach Bill Gardiner, who succeeded Kuzma, "told me that I didn't have a scholarship and not to return to school."

Churba is working in Williamsport but "I'm trying to find a school to go to now."

Sobczak Leads Lions

Fullback Sam Sobczak was the "iron man" of Penn State's 1960 football squad. He logged 320 minutes of playing time. Halfback Jim Kerr (307) was runner-up, followed by tackle Stew Barber (305).

Missouri Dominates Star Squad

Missouri's Orange Bowl champions placed three players on Penn State's 1960 all-opponent football team.

All-American end Dan LaRose tackle Rockne Calhoun, and halfback Mel West represent Missouri on an all-star aggregation that also includes two players each from Army, Pittsburgh, and Oregon, one from Illinois, one from Maryland, and one from Holy Cross.

Because of a tie at quarterback between Oregon's Dave Grosz and Holy Cross' Pat McCarthy, the Lions named a 12-man team.

Army players named were guard Al Vanderbush and fullback Al Rushatz. Pitt placed All-American end Mike Ditka and guard Larry Vignali on the team. Oregon, Penn State's Liberty Bowl opponent, was represented by Grosz and halfback Dave Grayson.

The Lions rounded out their all-opponent team by voting Illinois' Joe Rutgers to a tackle berth, and by naming Maryland's Bob Hacker as the best center they faced.

LaRose was the only unanimous selection on the team. Calhoun, Vanderbush, Vignali and West won by landslide votes.

Pitt's Ditka barely edged Maryland's Gary Collins at end, Rutgers nipped Pitt's Dick Mills at tackle, Hacker edged Army's George Joulwan at center, Grayson received stiff competition from Syracuse's Ernie Davis for a halfback spot, and Rushatz beat out Illinois' Bill Brown by a single vote at fullback.

Mel West

Basketball Scores

NBA
Syracuse	133 St. Louis 128
Detroit	126 Cincinnati 122
College
Army	64 Villanova 49
NYU	70 Temple 67
Carnegie Tech	85 Thiel 65
Duke	92 Virginia 90
Rochester	81 Colgate 76
Maryland	55 Georgetown 47
Providence	68 Rhode Island 66 (ot)
Dayton	60 Duquesne 56
St. Josephs	74 St. Johns 71
Georgia Tech	89 Georgia 89 (ot)

NCAA Legislative Session Marked by Stormy Debates

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The lawmakers for college sports ran into a small college rebellion yesterday at one of the longest and windiest National Collegiate Athletic Association sessions in several years and wound up by passing only about half the controversial legislation that concerned in-season eligibility of players.

After disposing of non-controversial business early — including approval of three new football bowl games and the passing of a couple of restrictive rules about recruiting — the delegates talked themselves into a state of exhaustion and confusion before the session ended.

A key statement of "fundamental policy" barely mustered the necessary two-thirds majority. But a rule limiting college athletes to competition within five calendar years passed by an unexpectedly large vote.

Under this rule, described as a compromise between the four-year limit originally suggested and the need to recognize hardship cases, an athlete must complete his eligibility within five years of the time he first registers at any college. The committee's original idea was to try to end the practice of holding a football player out of competition for one season when he's not needed and thus prolonging his educational process as well as his competitive career.

Two constitutional amendments that were tabled were a proposal for a national pre-registration program under NCAA control and supervision and a proposal for a national transfer rule. It was mainly the small colleges that objected to these propositions as designed to solve the special problems of the bigger members that engage in intensive recruiting.

Also passed was legislation to curb high school all-star football and basketball games and to discourage the importation of over-age foreign athletes.

Other activities were: Confirming through the NCAA Council report that the NCAA and the Amateur Athletic Union have broken off their long-standing alliance. The NCAA said it no longer will respect AAU suspensions. The breach may be healed, however, as committees from both organizations are working toward a new alliance.

Approving three new bowl games — the Presidential Trophy at Washington, D.C., the Aviation Bowl at Dayton, Ohio, and the Los Angeles Mercy Bowl.

Requiring that when a prospective athlete gets a visit to a college campus at the expense of someone who wouldn't normally pay the way, that person also must accompany him on the visit.

IM Results

Phi Delta Theta	23	Tau Phi Delta	20
Phi Epsilon	37	Triangle	23
Washington	37	Cumberland	22
Mifflin	26	Northampton	25
Navy	21	Jordan	20
Watts	51	Campus Trotters	18
Comets	40	Vets	16
Playboys	26	Ozontz Dukes	15

WHAT COULD BE EASIER??

Just relax! Let the Classified Ads do the job for you.

... IT PAYS to use the Classified Ad when you want to sell, rent or buy.

... IT PAYS to read the Classified Ads when you're looking for bargains.

will be projected on

EIDOPHOR SCREEN

in Schwab Auditorium

7 to 11 p.m. Saturday

DOORS OPEN AT 6 P.M.

Admission, One Dollar

PREVENT CRIPPLING DISEASES

PLEASE SAY YES TO THE NEW MARCH OF DIMES

BIRTH DEFECTS • ARTHRITIS • POLIO