

Life in USSR Discussed With Gymnastic Stars--

(Continued from page one) "That's not my concern." After the female half of the team had finished exercising, they discussed the feminine side of Soviet life. Polina Astakhova, from Stalino, said that women's fashions in the Soviet Union are the same as those in the United States. However, she said, unlike Americans, older women in the USSR and fat women do not wear slacks.

As for the status of Soviet women, Miss Astakhova said that most of them attend college and have careers. She said that the average age for marriage is between 18 and 25. After marriage, she said, they continue their careers. After all, she explained: "It would be a dull life if a girl who is married at 18 had to sit at home until she is 60."

HOW TO WIN A MASTER'S DEGREE AFTER 10 YEARS AS A FRESHMAN

They've been enrolled at Capitol for 10 years now and still haven't become the Four Sophomores, but the Four Freshmen's just-released album displays a degree of musical mastery that's just about the smoothest and most danceable this side of Commencement Day. In the style of the original "Freshmen Sound," the boys sing and play their own backings to songs like Funny Valentine, Paper Moon, But Beautiful and Dream. Strictly straight-A stuff. ST1485
