

Navy to Host Gymnasts In Battle of Unbeatens

By JOHN MORRIS

Tomorrow's Penn State - Navy gym meet in Annapolis, Md., may go a long way toward deciding the Eastern championship.

Both squads have perfect records going into the meet. State has a 2-0 log while the Middies boast a 3-0 slate.

Navy has swamped Springfield, 60½-30½; Pitt 66-30; and West Chester, 73-21.

The Lions also defeated Springfield, by a 57-39 count, and followed it up with a 63-33 trouncing of Temple Jan. 14.

The Middies haven't won the Eastern crown since 1944 and this could be their year.

But Wettstone feels his team is ready. "Physically and mentally we are in good shape."

"Navy will be very tough though and this meet will probably be decided on who gets the breaks."

Navy's strongest event is the rope climb mainly because of Nelson Hulme, the national champ.

Hulme has already recorded a 3.4 clocking this year, just one-tenth of a second off the record he set last season.

The Nittany climbers are led by team captain Bob Mumau. Mumau's fastest time this season is four seconds flat, while the Middies have three men with times of 3.7 or better.

State will rely on Greg Weiss and Tommy Seward for most of their points, but Wettstone said that the meet may be decided by the team that records the most second and third places.

Seward and Weiss were the outstanding performers for the Lions in their first two wins.

Weiss scored first against Springfield and Temple, and Seward took a first in tumbling and on the high bar against the Owls.

A duel could develop on the flying rings with Navy's Bob Temple and Jim Sloat paired off against State's Gerry Schaefer and Larry Yohn.

Schaefer has taken two firsts in his specialty. He scored a 279 against Temple with a near-flawless routine.

Eye Injury Sends Rice to Sidelines

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The Duquesne University basketball team got more bad news yesterday—sophomore Mike Rice will miss the rest of the season because of an eye injury.

He is the second starter lost recently by the Dukes, who have an 8-6 record. Bob Slobodnik, 6-foot-9 pivot man, has been on the sidelines nursing an infected ankle.

The talented 6-foot-2 Rice collided with a University of Toledo player during the second half of Wednesday night's game which Toledo won 89-76.

Rice, who was averaging 16 points and 10 rebounds a game, was admitted to Toledo Hospital. Doctors said he suffered an interior hemorrhage of the eye, which resulted in a blood clot.

The injury will not impair his vision, but he will not be able to compete for the rest of the season.

Hoak Signs Pact With Pittsburgh

Quarterback Dick Hoak, the hero of Penn State's 41-12 victory over Oregon in the 1960 Liberty Bowl game, has signed a contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League.

Hoak was the Steelers' fifth draft choice. Steeler coach Buddy Parker says he wants to use Hoak as an offensive halfback.

Hoak was a halfback during his freshman and sophomore years before being switched back to quarterback this past season.

He was an All-State quarterback at Jeannette, Pa., High School.
