Walker's Budget Request Backed by Liberal Party In State-Wide Campaign

Liberal party is beginning a state-wide campaign to stir up support for the full University appropriation from the state as requested by President Walker.

Letters requesting support for the full appropriation have been sent to newspapers in 10 Pennsylvania cities, according to Dale Harris, campaign chairman.

Language Credit Value To Change

The Liberal Arts faculty yesterday passed a proposal to change the credit value of the first three courses in the Romance languages from three to four.

The new system would allow two practicum hours per week for each language as compared to the present lack of scheduled laboratory work.

A proposal that suggested language courses with numbers 4 and 40 be dropped was also passed. This was done because students will be able to complete their 12 credit liberal arts language requirement with only three courses under the new credit system.

This system would go into effect progressively beginning with the fall 1961 term. That is, 4-credit French 1 would be started in the fall term, 4-credit French 2 in the winter term, etc.

A report was given by the committee on study abroad which advocated an elective program whereby students with little or no language background as well as advanced students would be able to study at a foreign university.

The beginners would attend classes conducted in English by a foreign professor. They would also be given the opportunity to study the language of the country in which they were staying.

The faculty approved committee recommendations that investigation be continued on the foreign study program.

In other business, Dale H. Husemoller, assistant professor of mathematics, was named research scholar. He will be given free time this semester in order to conduct research.

'56 Cabinet Shelved Bookstore

Fifth of a Series
By MEG TEICHHOLTZ

In 1955-56, All-University Cabinet chased the bookstore problem in and out of several meetings, offices and reports and then killed it because it was "unfeasible."

The establishment of a store that would sell new texts had been in the minds of students for a long time, but in September, 1955, Student Encampment agreed that it was not needed.

The encampment report stated that problems in purchasing books could be helped "provided the faculty makes a stronger effort to put out more accurate book lists . . . and the bookstores cooperate more fully in ordering books and supplies. Cabinet accepted this report early in the year. In December, however, it approved the formation of a committee to make a factual study of the problems involved in setting up this store. A Cabinet spokesman said "we want to get facts concerning a bookstore which no one who has talked about such things has up to now."

At this time the University was conferring with downtown bookstores in an effort to alleviate some of the problems students had when trying to buy books.

The Cabinet report was due in February of 1956, but didn't reach that body until May 17, 1956, the last meeting of the year. In essence it found that the in supplies) did not have the location or the capital to handle new books. In corresponding with other schools who had student run stores, the committee said these schools sold their books at retail price and advised the committee against such a store.

The report treated the thought of a student "co-op" store in the same negative manner. They said "students wouldn't patronize it unless it was in the main shopping area," and added that "it is almost impossible to obtain and operate another bookstore in State College due to zoning laws."

The report also said that "books would have to be sold at list price, thus requiring a refund program. This would require paying much additional help.

Parking Lot Clearing

The University traffic court has asked all vehicles be removed from student parking lot 53 adjacent to the women's recreation field by 7:30 a.m. Friday so that the physical plant can clear it of ice and snow.

USSR to Refuse Recognition to Dag

MOSCOW (AP)—In fiery reaction to Patrice Lumumba's death the Soviet Union demanded yesterday that all foreign troops quit the Congo and asserted it will no longer recognize Dag Hammarskjold as U.N. secretary-general.

The Soviets called for recognition of Antoine Gizenga, Lumumba's fanatic lieutenant who heads a Stanleyville regime, as the Congo's premier and offered him every help.

Performers Engaged For Jazz Festival

George Shearing and his Orchestra and Eli's Chosen Six are two of the orchestras which will appear at the IFC-Panhel Jazz Festival, April 13, Sandra Baker, co-chairman of the jazz festival committee, announced last night.

Miss Baker said at a meeting of the Panhellenic Council that in addition to these two groups, Frieda Lee will also appear to represent local talent. The local orchestra which will accompany Miss Lee has not yet been determined.

Tickets for the festival, which will be held in Recreation Hall, will go on sale March 17 and will be distributed to fraternities and sororities at this time. Each sorority woman and each fraternity man will be responsible for one ticket which will cost $1, Miss Baker said.

The Jazz Festival is expected to be a greater success than the IFC-Panhel Ball which had been held in the past, Miss Baker added.

In other business, the council passed a recommendation which will change the method by which rushees fill out preferential cards on the night of March 2. Under the new system, explained by Marcia Hamm, Panhellenic Rush Chairman, rushees living in Pollock Halls will fill out their preferential cards in Pollock 1, those living in South Halls will go to Lyons Hall and those living in Atherton, Simmons, McElwain and West Halls will go to the Hetzel Union Building.

It had been planned that all rushees would go to the HUB after the second coffee hour with their guides to fill out the cards.

Miss Hamm said that the new system will make it easier for rushees to indicate their preferences between 9:30 p.m., when the second coffee hour ends, and 11:30 p.m. when they must be back in their residence halls.

Under this system, sorority women will escort rushees living in Pollock or South Halls back to their rooms. Rushees living in Atherton, Simmons, McElwain or West Halls may be escorted either to their rooms or to the door of the HUB. Town girls will be escorted to the HUB.

Colder Weather Should Return To Local Area

Yesterday was the mildest day in more than a month. The mercury touched 45 degrees during mid-afternoon at the University weather station.

These mild afternoon temperatures combined with sunny skies to clear snow from side streets and sidewalks.

Colder air from central Canada should overspread Pennsylvania this evening bringing a return of snow flurries and sub-freezing temperatures tonight.

Today should be partly cloudy, breezy and mild with a high temperature of 43 degrees.

Cloudy and colder weather is predicted for tonight. There may be a period of light snow early tonight and snow flurries are likely late tonight, but no appreciable accumulations are expected.

Tonight's low reading should be near 25 degrees.

Partly cloudy and cold weather is forecast for tomorrow.

Friday should be cloudy and cool with light rain or snow likely.

Obviously referring to the UN Command—now totaling about 18,000 men—and a few score white mercenaries in the armed forces of secessionist Katanga Province, the Soviet government demanded that they clear out within a month.

The broadside followed a five-hour mob attack on the Belgian Embassy, led by foreign students of the expenses-paid People's Friendship University who called Lumumba a martyr of imperialism.

Hammarskjold, Belgium and two Congolese leaders — Katanga's President Moise Tshombe and the Congo national army chief, Maj. Gen. Joseph Mobutu — were denounced in a government statement issued through the government paper Izvestia and Soviet news agency Tass.

The statement called for dismissal of Hammarskjold "as an accessory to and organizer of the murder of the leading statesman of the Congo." UN censure of Belgium, ouster of all Belgians in the former Belgian colony, arrest of Tshombe and Mobutu as colonialist agents in the killing, and disarmament of Katanga and Congo government soldiers.

The Soviet program would leave Congolese soldiers in the Stanleyville regime of Gizenga, a fantastic leftist and potential political heir of Lumumba, as the only effective military force in the 900,000 square miles of the 8-month-old African nation.

The Soviets have been gunning for Hammarskjold since his neutrality policy became firmly evident last summer in the conduct of the UN Congo Command. Premier Khrushchev demanded in a speech before the UN General Assembly last Sept. 23 that the secretary-general be replaced by a three-man directorate representing East, West and neutral spheres.

The attack on the Belgian Embassy, which wrecked the front of the building, was a riotous demonstration of an ostensibly spontaneous type that occurs in Moscow only by police tolerance.
