

Lion Cagers Must Face Colgate Without DuMars

By SANDY PADWE

CORNING, N.Y., Feb. 16 — Facing Colgate and Syracuse on the road without Mark DuMars makes John Egli shudder but that's what his Lions will have to do this weekend.

DuMars remained in the University Hospital today with the gripe and team physician Alfred H. Griess said it is unlikely that the high-scoring guard will be able to join the team this weekend.

The Lions open their two-day road trip tomorrow night in Hamilton, N.Y., against Colgate and Saturday they will play Syracuse in the Onandoga War Memorial Auditorium.

State (9-8) already has beaten Syracuse and Colgate this year but DuMars was in the lineup both times.

He had 36 points when the Lions trounced the Orangemen, 77-58, Dec. 20 in Syracuse and he scored 15 Jan. 5 when State topped Colgate, 78-68 in Rec Hall.

Fiery Don Wilson will replace DuMars in the Penn State lineup.

The 6-0 senior started the Pitt game last week when DuMars was sidelined with an ankle injury, and he did an excellent job. He also started Tuesday's game at West Virginia but gave way to DuMars midway in the first half.

If the Lions play as well this weekend as they did against West Virginia, Egli won't have much to worry about.

The hustling Nittanians battled the tenth-ranked Mountaineers on even terms all evening before losing, 80-78, on a last second jump shot by Kenny Ward.

"We played well enough to win," Egli said, "but the breaks didn't go our way. If we continue to play that well I don't see how we can lose."

Colgate, 5-0 early in the season, has slumped badly and the Red Raiders now have a 10-12 record.

Even though State holds a win over the Raiders, Egli looks for an exceptionally close game.

"We'll be at a disadvantage if we don't have DuMars, and up there you have to be at full strength," Egli said.

Millrose Games' Winner Dropped from School

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Henry Wadsworth, who upset Olympic pole vault champion Don Bragg in the Millrose Games, has been dropped out of the University of Florida because of scholastic difficulties, track Coach Percy Beard said Wednesday.

Wadsworth, who beat Bragg with 15 feet, 4 inches two weeks ago in the New York meet, will not be eligible to re-enter the

Matmen Hope to Snap Slump Against Syracuse Tomorrow

Coach Charlie Speidel is hoping that Syracuse will provide the right tonic for his slumping grapplers when the two squads meet at Syracuse, N.Y., tomorrow afternoon.

State has lost three of its last five meets, but Syracuse hasn't fared any better.

The Orangemen have only two wins in six outings. Coach Joe Scandura has looked for an improvement over last season's 4-6 record, but the loss of Les Austin, undefeated at 147 last year, and Art Baker, 1959 NCAA 191-pound champ, have hurt.

With their 2-4 record, the Orangemen can't be classified with the average Penn State foe for the 1960-61 season.

Five of the seven opponents the Lions have met so far are having exceptionally good years. Lehigh Coach Gerry Leeman calls his second-ranked Engineers the best team he's ever coached.

Michigan, number three in the country, is a strong favorite to win the Big Ten title. Maryland Coach Sully Krouse said this year's squad is his best in 14 seasons of coaching at College Park.

Navy has won five times this year with losses to Lehigh and Maryland. Army has come on strong after an opening loss to State (24-10) and is now eighth in the nation.

Syracuse's two wins came against Ithaca College, 20-6, and Franklin and Marshall, 22-8.

Penn State this season plays 16 of its 24 basketball games away from home.
