

Mat Coach Undecided On Lineup

Charlie Speidel can't decide on a lineup for tomorrow night's Rec Hall encounter with arch rival Pitt and even if he could he wouldn't tell anybody.

The wily mat mentor may be cooking up a few surprises for the Panthers, who are in top contention for the Eastern title.

Penn State's only certain starter is Johnston Oberly at heavy-weight. The EIWA king will probably meet Panther Bob Guzik.

Guzik held Oberly to a 2-2 draw last year to help Pitt gain a 14-14 tie with the Lions and ruin their hopes for a perfect season.

State had gone through eight meets without a loss before meeting the Panthers.

At the other end of the lineup, sophomore Denny Slattery should wrestle at 123. Rex Perry, Pitt's coach will probably counter with his unbeaten junior Dick Martin.

Speidel will probably use Tony Scordo at 130 but from 137 to 191 the possibilities are too numerous to list.

He could use co-captain Jerry Seckler anywhere from 147 to 191. Seckler has seen action at 147, 157, and 167 this year, and he even wrestled at 177 last year.

Pifer could start at 157, 167 or even 177. Although most effective at 147, Neil Turner could move up a weight to 157.

But regardless of the possibilities, Speidel will be at a definite disadvantage. Because Pitt is the visiting team, he'll have to send his grappler out first at the start of each match. If Perry desires, he will have the chance to make a last minute change.

Houk Predicts Tough Fight For American League Flag

(Another in a series of major league team prospects written under the managers' own by-lines.)

New York Yankees
By RALPH HOUK

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The Yankees will be a solid contender to repeat in the American League. But I look for a rough race right down to the wire.

Naturally, I realize my own job is not going to be easy. After all, I'm taking over from Casey Stengel, one of the best managers of them all. We lost some fine talent to the new Washington and Los Angeles clubs, guys like Bob Cerv, Bobby Shantz, Eli Grba and Duke Maas.

We could use another starting pitcher, but overall I don't think our pitching is weak. Such regulars as Whitey Ford, Bob Turley, Art Ditmar, Ralph Terry, Jim Coates, Ryne Duren and Bill Stafford give us a sound nucleus. In addition, several of our younger pitchers will be given every chance to make the club. They include Billy Short, Hal Stowe, Jim Bronstad and Johnny

James. We got lefty Danny McDevitt from the Dodgers and he could help.

Except for third base, I can just about write down the rest of the Yankees lineup right now. At third, I expect Deron Johnson, a long ball hitter up from Richmond, to give Cletis Boyer a battle for the regular spot. Bill Skowron will be at first base, Bobby Richardson at second and Tony Kubek at third. Joe DeMaestri is an excellent utility infielder.

I'm going to go with Hector Lopez in left field, Mickey Mantle, of course, will be in center and Roger Maris in right.

The catching is the best in the league with Yogi Berra, Elston Howard and Johnny Blanchard. Yogi will double as a left fielder while Howard gives us protection at first base and in the outfield.

As I said, I'm not discounting the other clubs. Baltimore has that terrific young pitching and a good infield. Chicago strengthened its pitching and Cleveland has improved.
