Clagett Announces More Students Eligible for Rings

Donald Clagett, SGA vice-president and head of the class ring committee, announced yesterday that all certificate, associate and baccalaureate degree students are eligible to purchase class rings.

The decision to allow certificate students to order rings was made because "these people graduate from Penn State too and should be recognized," Clagett said.

Clagett also noted that any changes or alterations that students wish to make on their rings should be brought to the Ring committee for consideration. He emphasized that ROTC insignias and Greek affiliations should be brought to the committee saying that "uniformity in the rings was important."

The committee further decided that all official distributors of class rings named in the past few years must submit a description of the class rings they offer for the records of Associated Student Activities. Merchants from downtown can obtain the description forms, which are due in ten days, from the ASA office in the Hetzel Union Building.

Jazz Club To Present Art Blakey

Art Blakey and The Jazz Messengers will be presented at the Jazz Club Concert March 11 in Schwab, according to Alan Pollon, Jazz Club President.

Blakey and the Messengers, "one of the finest, swinging groups in jazz today," according to Pollon, have their home base at Birdland in New York City and feature Blakey on drums, Bobby Timmons on piano and Lee Morgan on trumpet.

Timmons is recognized as one of the leaders of the recent "soul movement" in jazz of which Ray Charles is also a part, while Morgan is known as one of the finest young trumpet players in the country, Pollon said. Jazz Greats such as Miles Davis, Thelonius Monk, Horace Silver and Clifford Brown have been former members of this group.

Tickets will go on sale Monday at the Hetzel Union desk and Nittany News at $1 for club members and $1.25 for non-members.

Student Activities--

(Continued from page one) will be no need for even a skeleton Board of Control, he added. The Interfraternity Council itself will not operate this summer.

The Daily Collegian will carry campus, national and international news during the summer as the biweekly Summer Collegian.

Mild Weather Expected Today

Some fog this morning will dissipate rapidly as sunny skies push the mercury toward an expected high temperature of 50 degrees this afternoon.

This mild weather will seem especially pleasant since it follows the cold and snow of yesterday.

Yesterday's snow was very light in most sections of the state, except for the southwestern quarter where 1 to 3 inches fell.

Tonight should be partly cloudy and cool with a chance of some very light rain or snow towards morning. The minimum will be about 32 degrees.

Mostly cloudy skies and little change in temperature is indicated for tomorrow.

Eugene Grumer, president of the Mineral Industries Student Council, announced last night that March 10 is the deadline for the proposals for exhibitions in their open house to be held later in the spring.

In other business, Gary Robinson, editor of the Penn State Engineer, discussed a possible enlargement of the magazine to include the colleges of Mineral Industries and Chemistry-Physics. The council voted in favor of this expansion.

Nominations were made by the council for candidates for the Ellen Steidle Awards. These awards to be announced later in the spring, will be chosen by a committee consisting of two council members and faculty members.

"Your Grandchildren will grow up under Communism!"

— says NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV

Will the Soviet threat come true? Will your grandchildren live under Communism? Forget God? Salute the Soviet flag?

"Never!" you say. But are you sure? What can you do to oppose Communism? There is one sure way. Help Radio Free Europe! What does it do? It broadcasts the news of freedom to 79 million captive people behind the Iron Curtain. It helps keep them from turning to Communism. It helps pose a major obstacle to the Russians starting a war. But Radio Free Europe needs help. It depends on individual Americans for its existence. Will you help? Give a dollar? Give 5 dollars . . . or more? Surely your heart tells you to give something—so that our children—and all children—shall live in freedom throughout the world.
