

Nittany Gym Stars Have Chance for Eastern Titles

By JOHN MORRIS

The Penn State gym team lost all chance for a share of the EIGL team title Saturday when Navy edged Army, 48½-47½, for its first championship in 17 years.

But the Lions have a chance to salvage some personal glory in the Easterns this weekend in Annapolis, Md.

The tourney starts Friday and judging from past scores, three State gymnasts will be in contention for individual honors in every event except the rope climb.

Greg Weiss, Tommy Seward and Gerry Schaefer have recorded some of the highest scores in the East this year while leading the Nittanians to a 5-1 log.

Weiss has been the Lions' most consistent performer this season and is the defending eastern all-around champion.

The stern-faced junior won the long horse vault and parallel bars and finished second on the horizontal bar on the way to his victory last year.

Weiss' win marked the ninth straight year a State gymnast had captured the all-around.

Sophomore Tommy Seward and Weiss will be entered in this year's all-around while ringman Gerry Schaefer is one of the top contenders for the flying rings crown.

Weiss has recorded the team's highest scores in three events. He has been outstanding on the parallel bars (284), side horse (288) and horizontal bar (287).

Seward has recorded a 273 on the p-bars and a 270 on the high bar in his best showings. Schaefer won the flying rings

Greg Weiss captured the all-around.

Spring Football Drills

Spring football drills are slated to begin April 5th at Penn State.

The Nittany Lions will top off a 20-day practice session with the annual Blue-White intra-squad game on May 6th.

Coach Rip Engle says his main problem this year, will be at the end positions. Four senior veterans are lost due to graduation.

IM Wrestling Entries

Entries for IM wrestling will be accepted in the IM Office in Rec Hall until 4:30 p.m. March 2.

Johansson Will Face Court Suit

NEW YORK (AP) — The United States took action yesterday in New York and Miami to tie up Ingemar Johansson's government-estimated $1 million purse for his third title fight with Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson at Miami Beach, March 13.

The Internal Revenue Service claims the Swedish ex-champion, now a Swiss resident, owes the U.S. government $598,181.92 in personal income tax for his two title fights with Patterson in New York in 1959 and 1960. The government said Johansson hasn't filed a return for 1959 income yet.

In twin court suits, the government obtained orders from Federal Judge Emmett C. Choate in Miami and Federal Judge Archie O. Dawson in New York restraining Johansson from transferring any funds outside the country. Hearings were set for March 2 in Miami and March 7 in New York.

At issue is whether Johansson will have to pay the stiff personal tax of $598,181.92, the lesser corporation tax of $292,020 or none at all as Johansson claims.

in four of the Lions' six meets. He lost to Navy's Van Temple (274-272) after falling on his dismount and failed to finish his routine in the season finale against Syracuse.

The flashy junior recorded scores of 279, 264, 276 and 278 despite being hampered by a leg injury for half of the campaign.

The Lion stars will face some tough competition from the likes of Springfield's Jeff Cardinali, Navy's Joe Marshall and Pitt's Earl McConnell.

Cardinali was second to Weiss in the all-around last year. He won the still rings and finished second on the p-bars, side horse and long horse vault.

Marshall won the tumbling competition and is favored to repeat over a field that may include Seward.

McConnell finished second in the tumbling and free exercise.

Phi Sig Swimmers Win, 24-16

Phi Sigma Kappa won four out of five events to beat Alpha Sigma Pi, 24-16, in IM swimming last night.

Acacia defeated Alpha Chi Sigma in the other fraternity meet, 28-13, and Chester beat Northampton, 26-15, in an independent meet.

Robert Amendola took first in the freestyle for Phi Sig. Teammates John Lloyd and Grant Waite captured wins in the backstroke and diving, respectively. Amendola, Waite, Lloyd and Bob Nelson teamed up to take the relay in 1:04.6.

Alpha Sig's only win was scored by Craig Guthrie in the backstroke with a 45.0.

Acacia's Hal Zook won the freestyle in 36.5 and the diving with 18.4. Acacia's other victories were won by Bill Barber with a time of 46.5 in the backstroke and Don Macalady, Barber, Gerry Logue and Larry Wolfe in the relay.

John Viney gave Alpha Chi Sig its only victory, scoring in the breaststroke.

Sam Weir took the opening event for Chester with a 32.1 triumph in the freestyle. James Jenks and Gary Brooks finished one-two in the backstroke. A victory in the breaststroke by Bob Turring put Chester out ahead 18-9.

Weir, Brooks, Turring and Jenks combined to win the relay in a fast 59.0 and assure a team victory.

Dick Cary scored Northampton's sole victory in diving.

THIS YOUNG MAN IS A BUSINESS ANALYST FOR THE TELEPHONE COMPANY

When Gene Bernier received his degree in Business Administration at the University of Michigan in 1957, he had top offers from several businesses.

Gene chose Michigan Bell Telephone Company because: "This job was tougher to get. There was no doubt in my mind that I was being carefully evaluated for a responsible management job. Just getting this job was a challenge."

One of Gene's early assignments was writing a training manual for new employees which would explain telephone accounting in simple everyday terms—a tough job even for a seasoned writer. But Gene did it. And his next step was a natural.

In November, 1958, he was transferred to the Michigan Bell Economic Studies Section as editor of a monthly publication, "Michigan Business Trends." In this work, Gene analyzes and reports business trends in Michigan as an aid to telephone management people in decision making.

Gene proved his skill in reducing complex economic problems to simple terms. And, sixteen months after his transfer he was promoted to Senior Statistician.

Today, Gene sums it up this way: "The idea around here is to get the best a man has in him. To me that spells opportunity."

If you want a job where you will get real responsibility and have a chance to move ahead as fast as your ability will take you—then you'll want to find out more about the Bell Companies. Your Placement Office has literature and additional information.

"Our number one aim is to have in all management jobs the most vital, intelligent, positive and imaginative men we can possibly find."

FREDERICK R. KAPPEL, President
American Telephone & Telegraph Co.
