

150 Debaters Arrive For Competition

Approximately 150 debaters from state and out-of-state schools will arrive today to register for the 26th Annual Joseph F. O'Brien Inter-State Debaters' Congress being sponsored by the Men's Debate Team.

The model congress will continue until Saturday and will debate, pass or reject bills on the topics "What Should Be the Policy of the United States With Respect to Red China" and "Should the United States Adopt a Program of Compulsory Health Insurance."

After registration today, delegates will attend an informal reception at 7 p.m. in the main lounge of the Hetzel Union Building.

The congress will convene for its first assembly session at 9 a.m. tomorrow in the assembly room of the HUB. Dr. Robert G. Bernreuter, special assistant to the President for student affairs, will present an address of welcome.

A dinner will be held at 5:30 p.m. in the dining room of the HUB with David Goodhart as toastmaster. Speeches will be presented by the Gavel Girls, women debaters, who will discuss the topic "Should the United States Adopt a Program of Compulsory Marriage Insurance For All Women."

Following the dinner, delegates will adjourn to the HUB Assembly room where they will present their formal debates on the question of "Red China."

Frosh Ad Board Pickets For Hall Meeting Attendance

Despite snow, picketing by the Freshman Class Advisory Board was successful in obtaining 48 per cent attendance of the class at residence hall meetings Tuesday night, Stephen Brodie, Publicity Chairman reported last night.

According to James Sloane, freshman class president, the meetings were held for freshmen in all of the residence halls to acquaint them with the purpose and structure of the board and its projects.

Sloane was pleased with the attendance and because he felt that enthusiasm was high he deecided to begin several of the projects, he said.

As a result of the freshman opinion voiced at the meetings, the board voted to hold a combined Freshman-Sophomore Dance on March 24th rather than a separate freshman dance. They also voted to sponsor a Class Night on May 12th.

In addition, a suggestion box will be placed in the Hetzel Union Building and freshmen will be encouraged to suggest possible class-sponsored projects.

It was also suggested that a contest be held for a Frosh Queen, but no specific action will be taken until the next meeting.

Reading Finalists To Compete Today

Finals for the Inter-collegiate State and National Reading Festivals will be held at 4 p.m. today in 309 Sparks.

Six representatives will be selected from the following 10 finalists: Roy Altman, Dolores Astheimer, Helen Jewells, Carole Kismaric, Michele Ohrman, Jeanne O'Malley, Peggy Mitchell, Mary Louise Pappas, Grace Shearer, George Walker and Suzanne Wertz.

Hillel to Present Film On Russian Communism

The B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation will present "Nightmare in Red," the second in its new series of TV forums, at 8 p.m. Sunday.

The film concerns the development of Russian Communism from 1905 to the present.

Following the film, Dr. Aaron Druckman, associate professor of philosophy, will lead the discussion.
