LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Fighting erupted yesterday between United Nations Sudanese troops and Congolese soldiers in the port of Banana at the height of new U.N. efforts to end civil strife in the Congo.

At least one Congolese soldier was reported killed and fighting continued into the night despite orders from both the U.N. and Congolese army commands to cease firing. The Sudanese were using their new authority from the U.N. Security Council to open fire if necessary to maintain order.

India Offers UN Congo Forces

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United Nations said yesterday India has offered an entire military brigade—about 3000 men—for the UN force in the Congo.

With reinforcements offered in the past two days by Liberia and Tunisia, this brings the total new forces promised to Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold to about 4000.

The Congo force has dropped to about 18,500 through defections of nations in disagreement with UN policy. The new goal is 25,000.

India's offer was transmitted to Hammarskjold by Indian Ambassador C. S. Jha.

The offer carried out a promise made by Prime Minister Nehru about two weeks ago that he would send Indian troops to the Congo if he thought the United Nations was taking the proper measures to restore peace and order there.

With passions already running high against the United Nations in Leopoldville, it was a discouraging end to a day that saw the U.N. make two more approaches to the leftist rebels of Antoine Gizenga.

In the midst of all the U.N. activity, Premier Joseph Ileo and other Congolese officials flew off to Katanga Province en route to Malagasy for a peace conference of the Congo's leaders. Called by President Moise Tshombe of independent Katanga, the talks are designed to show that the Congo can settle its own problems without U.N. or other interference.

Gizenga is boycotting the meeting. But President Cleophas Kamitatu of Leopoldville Province, who belongs to Gizenga's leftist party, accompanied Ileo.

A U.N. spokesman said the fighting at Banana, a port on the Atlantic 300 miles west of Leopoldville, broke out when Congolese soldiers tried to arrest a U.N. radio operator.

Released Flyers Deny Charges

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—Air Force Capt. Freeman B. Olmstead and John R. McKone said yesterday their RB47 reconnaissance bomber returned the fire of a single attacking Soviet fighter before their plane was shot down in flames over the Barents Sea last July 1.

They denied emphatically that their plane ever had flown over Soviet territory and Capt. McKone said their craft was at least 50 nautical miles off the coast.

McKone, 28, the navigator, from Tonganoxie, Kan., and Olmstead, 25, copilot, from Elmira, N.Y., faced some 100 newsmen in the Forbes Air Force Base servicemen's club and told their story publicly for the first time since their release from a Soviet prison Jan. 25.
