SENSATIONAL OFFER! MAGNIFICENT.
 T1. PEOPLE • PLACES • THINGS • IDEAS. Ed. by Geoffrey Strickson & C. H. Gibbs-Smith. The first monumental panorama of history presented in a new, exciting, and easily read format. PEOPLE, PLACES, THINGS, IDEAS, as John D. Rockefeller and Pablo Picasso, widely separated in time and outlook as Voltaire and Hitler, as picturesque as Lucrezia Borgia and Catherine the Great—in these pages they and countless others spring vividly to life as flesh-and-blood human beings. PLACES: from the island of St. Helena to the heights of Mt. Fuji, from the arid Sahara to the towering skyscrapers of Manhattan—the stories of the places and the great men and events associated with them. THINGS: the stories of the myriad objects—useful and useless, ingenious and bizarre, futile and liberating—which man has devised in his journey across the centuries. IDEAS: the most significant landmarks in the history of human thought, from the ancient philosophy of the Greeks to the modern scientific theories of today. This 110 in color text contains over 450 double-column pages. Each volume is illustrated with 175 full-page halftones, 16 in full color. Handsomely-bound in glorious five-color covers, boxed in a majestic full-color slipcase. A treasure for the home library, an impressive set for any gift occasion. Pub. at $24.75.
