

Seckler Loss Helped Pendleton Win Title

By JIM KARL

There were about 3000 happy people in Lehigh's Grace Hall Friday afternoon when Lion captain Jerry Seckler lost in the first round of the eastern mat tourney.

The wildly partisan Lehigh fans have long memories when it comes to wrestling, and they thought back to last year when Thad Turner, their 167-pounder, barely nipped Seckler, 2-0, for the EIWA title.

Seckler was seeded second behind Lehigh's Kirk Pendleton at 157 this year and Engineer fans considered him the main threat to the promising sophomore.

Pendleton, described by coach Gerry Leeman as "one of the finest wrestlers I've ever coached," racked up seven pins in winning 12 straight dual meets this year.

When Army's Al McElhose stopped Seckler, 5-4, in the first upset of the tournament, the fans went wild.

Pendleton went on to win the crown with little trouble. He pinned Penn's Jerry Miller in 49 seconds, threw Princeton's Rick Eckler at 3:19, decided Syracuse's Gary Sirota 6-0 and then stopped Pitt's Jim Harrison 3-0 in the finals.

Seckler, who had a disappointing 3-2-1 record this year after being undefeated in 10 dual meets last season, took the loss hard. "I haven't felt right all year."

Four League Crowns Decided in IM Basketball

Three fraternity and one independent league title was decided last night in IM basketball.

Sigma Nu overcame a 3-point halftime deficit with strong rebounding to defeat Acacia 38-26 and capture the League A crown.

Phi Mu Delta beat Sigma Alpha Epsilon 25-20 in a close battle to win the League E title. In another close game Phi Gamma Delta beat Chi Phi 24-19 to win the League F crown.

In independent action Dauphin defeated Westmoreland 28-10 to cap League B. Mike Formicone had 11 to lead the winners.

Wilson Pins Kulbacki in IM Wrestling

BY JEFF MILLER

Sigma Phi Epsilon's Don Wilson, last year's 176-pound champion, won his first match as a heavyweight with a fall over Delta Tau Delta's Ron Kulbacki in IM wrestling last night.

Wilson moved up one weight class due to the IM rule which prohibits a champion to wrestle in the same weight class two straight years.

There were 15 falls scored in 23 matches in last night's action. Wilson's was the fastest, coming in 1:05.

Paul Brownback (158) of DTD pinned Nick Duniak of Phi Kappa Theta at 4:50 and Sigma Nu's Walt Kearney threw Delta Chi's Mike Riskin at 5:55 in two of the closest matches of the evening.

In the 150-pound division, Phi Delta Theta's Mike McCombs scored a takedown, two reversals and a near fall to defeat Delta Chi's John Johnson, 11-2.

Independent action saw Joe Spatafore pin Carl Iannetti in a fast 1:15 in the 128-pound class while Lou Pennauchi took a decisive 8-2 decision from Ron Gormont in the indie 158-pound division.

he said shortly after the defeat. "I guess this is just the way things were meant to be."

Seckler said that Army had him scouted perfectly. McElhose countered every move he made and used a single leg takedown to amass enough points to win.

Seckler tried desperately for a takedown in the last period, but it never came and he was out of the tournament almost before it had started.

Chicago Cubs By CHARLEY GRIMM

MESA, Ariz. (AP) — "I guess I can give as good a rundown on the Cubs as anyone. After all, I was their manager at three different times and now I'm one of the eight men on the board of coaches.

The Cubs, as you know, will have no manager this season, but there will be a head coach. Four of us will serve with the Cubs and the other four will spend most of the time with our four clubs. A lot of people are wondering how this is going to work out. But let's give it a chance.

There's no problem at shortstop with Ernie Banks, or at third base, with Ron Santo. At second, it'll probably be a dogfight among Don Zimmer, Jerry Kindall and Jim McKnight. We're well fixed at first base with Frank Thomas, Ed Bouchee and George Altman.

Our other outfielder regulars figure to be Richie Ashburn and Bob Will.

Glen Hobbie, Don Cardwell, Bob Anderson, Jim Brewer, Dick Ellsworth, Don Elston and Joe Schaffernoth give us the makings of an excellent pitching staff.

Ed Czekaj, business manager for athletics at Penn State, has been named to the Executive Board of the U.S. Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association.
