

Speidel May Send 3 To NCAA Tourney

Although Charlie Speidel hasn't completed his final plans yet, it's almost a certainty that Penn State's three eastern champions — Dan Johnston (137), Ron Pifer (147) and Johnston Oberly (Hwt.) — will compete in the national tourney at Corvallis, Or., March 23-25.

State's policy in recent years has been to send a full team when the tourney is held in the East and only two or three grapplers when it is held in the West.

"That tournament is no place to get experience," Speidel answered when asked if he planned to take anyone else.

Pifer and Oberly both have been to the nationals before. This will be Johnston's first trip.

Oberly injured his ribs shortly before being pinned by Oklahoma State's Ted Ellis in a semi-final round during his sophomore year. He had to forego a possible third or fourth place finish and drop out of the tournament.

Last year he was upset in the

NIT Begins Tonight With Doubleheader

By The Associated Press

The opening doubleheader in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) throws the post-season college basketball playoffs into full swing today.

St. Louis (18-8) plays Miami of Florida (19-6) in the NIT opener at Madison Square Garden at 7:30 p.m. (EST). This game will be followed by a game between Detroit (18-8) and Holy Cross (18-4).

The quarter-final bracket will be completed Saturday afternoon when Army (17-6) meets Temple (19-6) and DePaul (17-7) faces Providence (20-5).

The NIT continues until March 25 when the champion will be crowned. Favored teams are Dayton (19-7), Memphis State (20-2), Niagara (14-4) and Colorado State (17-7), all of whom drew first round byes.

Games last night reduced the NCAA major college field to 16 teams.

Hall Scores IM Mat Victory

By JOHN STOECKEL
Footballer Galen Hall of Delta Upsilon beat Phi Kappa Psi's Ron Evelhoch, 3-1, in a fast-moving heavy weight match in IM wrestling last night.

Dave Blasenstein scored the quickest win of the night, pinning Tony Klinko in 0:42 in an independent heavyweight battle.
