

Harshbarger to Give Sermon

Dr. Luther H. Harshbarger, University chaplain, will discuss "When God Breaks Through" for the service at 10:55 a.m. tomorrow in Schwab.

Harshbarger is a frequent lecturer and preacher to college student conferences. He has recently been appointed to the Committee on Religion and Education of the American Council of Education and the executive committee of the Church Society for College Work.

The Meditation Chapel Choirs, directed by James W. Beach, will sing "Miserere mei Deus" by Antonia Lotti.

Dr. Edward LeRoy Long, Jr., associate professor of religion at Oberlin College, will be the speaker for the Protestant worship service at 9:00 a.m. tomorrow in the Eisenhower Chapel.

Long has been an instructor in physics, a tutor assistant in Christian ethics and has served as Minister to Students at the Blacksburg, Va. Presbyterian Church. In 1955 he was appointed head of the Department of Philosophy and Religion at Virginia Polytechnic Institute, a post he resigned in 1957 to assume his present position at Oberlin College.

The Meditation Chapel Choir will sing "Ave Verum Corpus" by Mozart.

Dr. Ernest H. Freund will speak on "The Religious Problems of Germany" for the Evangelical United Brethren Student Fellowship meeting at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow evening. Charles Smith, a graduate in business administration from Capetown, South Africa, will speak to the Free Methodist Youth on segregation in his country and its relation to Christian faith.

The Lutheran Student Association will discuss "The Modern Student Mind and the Atonement" at their tomorrow evening's program. A Vesper service will be held Thursday at 6:30 p.m. in the Eisenhower Chapel.

The Westminster Fellowship will hold a Reading Retreat on the topic "Divine Love" tomorrow beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The United Student Fellowship will discuss "Our Values and Goals in Life" for their evening program beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The "Meaning of Communion" will be discussed by the Wesley Foundation at their 6:30 p.m. meeting tomorrow. A Lenten service in Grace Lutheran Church followed by breakfast in the center will begin at 7:00 Thursday morning.

Part III of the Marriage Forum, sponsored by the Newman Club, will meet at 7:00 p.m. Tuesday in the Hetzel Union assembly room to discuss the problems of the child raising years of marriage. Brother Gerald Henry will lead the program.

The second of two special Lenten-Easter Services will be presented by the Meditation Chapel Choirs at 8:00 p.m. Tuesday. "The Seven Words of Christ on the Cross," "Miserere Dei," "Ovos omnes" and "The Glorious Day is Here" are included in the program. Dr. Luther H. Harshbarger will be the liturgist.

"The Dynamics of Group Individual Religion" will be presented by Hermann Hesse in the last of the Hillel Tuesday night series, at 8:00 p.m. in the Hillel Foundation.

Cutler Given New Post By Walker

By SUE ROBBINS
The appointment of Dr. Howard A. Cutler as assistant to the president for academic affairs will be announced at this morning's meeting of the Council of Academic Deans, President Eric A. Walker said last night.

Cutler will share with others the responsibilities borne by Lawrence E. Dennis, vice president for academic affairs, Walker said. His duties for the new position will be determined at today's meeting, he added.

Dennis has been given a six-month leave of absence to accept an executive post in Washington with the new Peace Corps.

Cutler joined the University staff in 1951 as an assistant professor of economics, and has been on campus since then except for one year as a visiting professor at the University of Chicago. He was named director of general education in 1957 and assistant to the vice president for academic affairs in 1958.

Engineering Research Prof Retires

Dr. Gerald J. Stout has retired from the faculty on which he served from 1929 until 1947 and again from 1958 until the present time.

For the past three years he has been research associate in the Engineering Experiment Department and prior to his resignation in 1947, he was associate professor of horticulture manufactures.

He taught horticulture at the University of Massachusetts for three years before his initial appointment to the University faculty and from 1947 to 1958 was associate professor and professor of horticulture and food technology at the University of Florida.

A native of Cedar Springs, Mich., Stout attended Ferris Institute and the Central Michigan Teachers College and received his bachelor of science degree in chemistry, plant physiology and horticulture at Michigan State University.

He received the master of science degree, also in horticulture, plant physiology and chemistry, at Michigan State, while his doctor of philosophy degree in horticulture and soil physics was conferred by Ohio State University.
