

Alleman's Decision Gives DTS '61 IM Wrestling Championship

By DEAN BILLICK

A clutch win last night by heavyweight Ron Alleman gave Delta Theta Sigma its first IM wrestling crown.

Alleman used a takedown and an escape to beat Ed White of Phi Delta Theta, 3-1, in the match that decided the 1961 championship.

Going into the last bout of the evening, Delta Theta Sigma held an 80-78 lead over Phi Delta Theta but Alleman's decision was worth three points and it clinched the victory.

Phi Delta Theta's 78 clinched the second spot and Sigma Nu was third with 72.

Three 1960 champions lost their crowns in last night's action at Rec Hall.

Bob Sommons, who won the 150-pound crown for DU last year, lost out to Bill Smith of Phi Delta Theta, 6-5, at 158.

Trailing 5-4 with five seconds left, Smith escaped and picked up a point for riding time.

Bob Dean of Alpha Sigma Phi, the Independent 158-pound finalist a year ago, lost the fraternity 167-pound crown to Bob

DICK KOONTZ

Peace of Phi Kappa Sigma, 6-4. Sigma Chi's George Saba, who won at 142 last year, dropped a 5-2 decision to Dick Koontz of Phi Kappa Psi in the 150-pound final.

The lone pin in the fraternity finals came in the 175-pound class when Beta Theta Pi's Dave Grubbs flattened John Graham of Delta Theta Sigma at 1:20.

In the closest bout in the Independent class, Jim Williams topped Chuck Ebert, 3-2, with an escape in the last minute.

Ebert had reversed Williams for a 2-1 lead but then Williams escaped to tie the score. He won on time advantage.

Judge, Lawyers Clash Over Ingo

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A federal judge warned attorneys yesterday to conclude their tax case against Ingemar Johansson by Friday and let the Swedish heavyweight go home.

"I'm not going to keep this man in prison because you say he has not paid his taxes," Judge Emmet C. Choate told John J. McCarthy, attorney for the Department of Justice Tax Division.

Johansson has been at nearby Palm Beach since his knockout at the hands of Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson March 13.

McCarthy told the judge, at a hearing on Johansson's petition to be allowed to leave the country, that the Internal Revenue Service can invoke the aid of the Immigration Service to keep persons in the country during tax investigations.

"I told you a week ago what to do," the judge shot back. "I may decide to release him after the depositions. I'll set the case for next Friday at 9:45 a.m."

The government contends that Johansson owes $498,181 for 1959 and 1960 and $411,620 for 1961 and the judge noted that $1.3 million of Johansson's funds are tied up in this country.

"His tax may be $1.4 million," McCarthy said.

"You're going to have him fighting for nothing if you keep on," Judge Choate remarked.

Don't lose yours—it could cost you your life!

Where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go DOWN!
