

1000 Student Tickets Distributed for Ballet

More than 1000 tickets have been distributed to students for the National Ballet of Canada performance to be held at 8 p.m. Sunday in Recreation Hall.

The program will be presented by the University Artist Series and tickets are still available at the Hetzel Union desk.

The company is headed by prima ballerina, Lois Smith and premier danseur, David Adams and a large group of soloists. The entire company includes more than 80 persons.

"Coppelia," one of the most popular of the classic ballets, will be presented Sunday night. This ballet, based on Hoffman's story, "Der Sandman," was contrived by choreographer Arthur Saint-Leon and composer Leo Delibes.

"Coppelia" tells the story of a beautiful girl who sits reading on her balcony. She is seen and loved by Frantz, who is betrothed to Swanhilda, a village girl.

Swanhilda soon discovers that Coppelia is only a life-size doll and changes clothes with her. Frantz, coming to woo Coppelia, is caught by her father and drugged.

Swanhilda reveals her identity to the father and she and Frantz are reunited and run away leaving Coppelia's father brokenhearted as he believed he could bring the doll to life using a book of magic.

The leading roles for the ballet will be played by Anne Neville, Grant Strate, Sylvia Mason and Colin Worth.

Music will be provided by the National Ballet Orchestra directed by George Crum.
