

Black Announces Editors For Fall Term Collegian

The new editorial staff of The Daily Collegian for the coming year was announced yesterday by John Black, editor in chief.

The new personnel director will be Karen Hyneckal, junior in journalism from Baltimore, Md., assistant personnel director will be Susan Eberly, junior in arts and letters from State College.

Editorial assistants will be Joel Myers, senior in meteorology from Philadelphia, and Marilyn Teichholtz, junior in journalism from Massapequa, New York.

The new city editors will be Richard Leighton, junior in journalism from Washington Crossing, and Lynne Cerefice, junior in journalism from Verona, New Jersey.

Copy editors will be Patricia Dyer, junior in arts and letters from Shippensburg, and Paula Dranov, junior in journalism from Chester.

The new sports editor will be James Karl, junior in journalism from Pittsburgh. John Morris, sophomore in journalism from Delta, will be assistant sports editor.

Photography editor will be John Beauge, junior in journalism from Williamsport.

The new editorial board has been enlarged to meet increasing academic pressure under the four-term plan, Black said. The new board has twelve members in comparison to last year's board of eight.

"Design at Work: Its Forms and Functions" has just been published by the Center for Continuing Liberal Education.

Petitions to Go To Governor

A series of petitions solicited by the Liberal party expressing student approval of President Eric A. Walker's budget request will be presented to Gov. David L. Lawrence within the next week and a half, Dale Harris, acting chairman of the Liberal party said yesterday.

Students who have not signed the petitions and wish to do so, may sign Monday and Tuesday in the petition booth in the Hetzel Union building.

The Liberal party's "Help Cut the Budget Cut" campaign began shortly after the release of Walker's budget request.

WHAT PROGRAMS DID YOU WATCH WHEN YOU WERE LITTLE, MAMA?

It's even easy for us to forget that TV's so new. Yet most of our wonderful electric servants have been developed in just one generation!

As still more new ones come along, it's good to know that there will be plenty of electricity to run them. And the more new appliances you use, the less your electricity will cost per average kilowatt-hour.

Doesn't that make electricity just about the biggest bargain in your budget?
