

Council Elections To Continue Today

Students of six colleges will have a final chance to vote for student council representatives as elections continue from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. today. The elections began yesterday.

Students may vote by matriculation card in the designated places. Business Administration council will hold elections in Boucke, Chemistry-Physics in Osmond, Education and Liberal Arts in the Hetzel Union Building, Engineering-Architecture in Sackett and Hammond and Mineral Industries in Mineral Industries.

John Jourdan, Inter-College Council Board elections chairman, said that elections had been conducted smoothly and that poll workers were doing an excellent job.

Daniels to Speak Today

Farrington Daniels, vice-chairman of the National Academy of Science, and this year's Priestly Lecturer at the University, will speak on "Scientific Needs and Opportunities in Asia" at 4 p.m. today in the Chapel lounge. The speech will be sponsored by the University Christian Association and the Friends Peace Committee.
