

Quartermiler Threatens Hambright's 440 Record

By JIM KARL

George Metzgar's performance at the Quantico Relays the past weekend went relatively unnoticed in the wake of Bob Brown's 9.4 victory in the 100-yard dash.

Metzgar, a fast improving quartermiler who Coach Chick Werner calls one of the best in the East, turned in two blazing 440's for his weekend's work.

He was clocked in 47.5 for his leg on State's distance medley victory over North Carolina and anchored the Lion mile relay quartet to a fifth place finish with a 47.4.

Both of Metzgar's clockings bettered the Penn State record of 47.6 set by Dick Hambright in 1958.

But because they were set in a relay event (Metzgar got a running start), Hambright's mark still stands.

The senior from Export, Pa., feels the record may not last long though.

"On a good day with a good track, I'll break it," Metzgar said.

If the weather clears up he may get his chance against Navy on Beaver Field Saturday.

Metzgar will run a "triple" against the Middies — 220, 440 and mile relay.

Although he has recorded a 9.8 in the 100 and a 21.3 in the 220, Metzgar feels his best event is the quarter mile.

He ran the third fastest 440 in the nation in indoor competition this year. His 48.9 was bettered by just two other runners, Jim Fisher of Minnesota (48.8) and Dave Mills of Purdue (47.2).

Metzgar's main competition in the 440 Saturday may come from teammate Don Davies, who also has looked good this year.

Noel Bing, Navy's top quartermiler, finished third in the 440 in a triangular meet with Pitt and Georgetown last week. Pitt's Vance Carter won the event in 50.3.

Bing did better two weeks ago when he recorded a 49.7 victory against Morgan State and Quantico in another triangular meet.

Navy won both meets. The Middies scored 88 4/5 points to 36 for Pitt and 27 1/5 for Georgetown last week and surprised Quantico, 68 1/2-62 1/2, two weeks ago. Morgan State was third with 32 points.

Twins Begin Home Stand In 1st Place

ST. PAUL - MINNEAPOLIS

(AP)—The Minnesota Twins, flashing early season power in the American League, come home tomorrow to a royal welcome.

If the fans are making a premature down payment on hero-worship you can hardly blame them.

The Twins have been in sole possession of first place in the league since winning three out of four from Baltimore last weekend. Yesterday they extended their mark to 5-1 with a 3-2 victory over Boston. They play the Red Sox in the second game of the series today.

The former Washington Senators, transplanted by president Cal Griffith last October, will fly in tonight for their first home game Friday, against the new Washington club.

No elaborate ceremonies are planned at Wold-Chamberlain Field, but the cities, usually bitter rivals in sports and everything else, will link arms in new-found friendship to toast the team tomorrow.

St. Paul gets the first chance with a breakfast at a downtown hotel and a musical salute from the police band. Then the 36-car motorcade, with officials and players waving from convertibles, will wind through city streets and across the Mississippi River to Minneapolis.

Among those in the party will be American League President Joe Cronin, Gov. Elmer L. Andersen, Manager Cookie Lavagetto and Griffith.

Bucs Score 5-3 Victory Over Cubs

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The world champion Pittsburgh Pirates opened their home season yesterday by scoring two runs in the seventh inning to break a tie and give them a 5-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

First baseman Dick Stuart, who had given the Pirates a one-run lead with a booming triple in the fifth inning, drove in what proved to be the winning run with a single in the seventh.

Southpaw Vinegar Bend Mizell, who usually has little trouble with the Cubs, received credit for the victory although the Pirates' ace relief pitcher, Roy Face, hurled the final two innings. It was Mizell's first start of the young season.

Starter Dick Ellsworth of the Cubs was removed for a pinch hitter and the defeat was charged to Mel Wright who gave up both Pirate runs in the seventh.

After retiring one man, Wright gave up singles to Dick Groat and Bob Clemente. Stuart dropped a looping single into short right and Groat scored, Clemente, going to third. A moment later Clemente scored on a squeeze bunt laid down by Bill Mazeroski.

Snider Injures Elbow; Placed on Disabled List

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Veteran slugger Duke Snider yesterday was declared out of action for at least a month with a bone fracture in the right elbow, dealing the already slow starting Los Angeles Dodgers a jolt.

Vice President E. J. "Buzzie" Bavasi wired Commissioner Ford Frick, to ask that Duke be placed on the disabled list for 30 days.

The 34-year-old Snider was hit by a Bob Gibson pitch as the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Dodgers 9-5 Monday night.

Lion Golfers Face Mountaineers Today

By DAVE LEONARD

Joe Boyle's golfers and Sherm Fogg's netters, both 0-2 this season, will try to break into the win column with victories today.

The golf team hosts West Virginia at 1:30 while the tennis team travels to College Park for a match with Maryland.

Boyle is looking for an improvement from his linksmen against the Mountaineers. Penn State has dropped decisions to Maryland, 23 1/2-3 1/2, and Navy, 5-2.

The Lions beat West Virginia 10 1/2-1 1/2 last year at Morgantown, but the Mounties figure to be stronger this year. Six lettermen return from last year's squad which posted a 3-5-4 record.

Heading the list of returnees is junior Gary Loring, who posted a 7-5 record in 1960.

Sid Bennett, a letterman in 1959, moves into the number two spot behind Loring.

Mountie Captain Bob King, Bill Dunlap, and Tom Cunningham will play in the third, fourth, and fifth positions. Coach Ira Rodgers has not decided on his sixth and seventh men.

Boyle will probably go with Captain John Morton in the lead-off position and Bob Rutherford in the second spot. He hasn't named the remainder of the lineup.

Fogg is just as uncertain on his lineup for the Maryland match.

Jim Baker will occupy the top spot for the Lions with Captain John Blanck and Vance Rea playing in the next two positions. Fogg said that Tom Claire will remain in the number six spot, but he hasn't decided on the other positions.

The Lion coach rates Maryland on a par with Georgetown, a team that ripped State, 8-1, Saturday.

"Maryland has the same type of team as Georgetown except they have a stronger number one man," Fogg said.

Baker will face Maryland star Chuck Abelson. Abelson defeated the Lion junior in a match at Penn State last year, when the Terps won five out of six singles matches and then forfeited all the doubles matches because of a snowstorm.

After tomorrow's matches, both the linksmen and netters will meet Pitt at home Saturday.
