

Nittanies Beat Lafayette, Terps Behind Southpaws

By JOHN MORRIS
Assistant Sports Editor
COLLEGE PARK, Md.,
April 24 — Ed Kikla and Al Gursky combined to give Penn State a 5-3 victory over Maryland here today.

The win, coupled with Saturday's rain-shortened 3-2 victory over Lafayette, pushed the Lions' record to 3-1. Lafayette is now 6-6-1 and the loss drops Maryland's log to 6-8.

Lefty Tom Durbin stopped the Leopards on three hits Saturday before the rain came in the home fifth.

Kikla, another southpaw, cooled Maryland's bats today as the temperature soared to the high 80's on Shipley Field.

Kikla (2-0) was almost untouchable except for the sixth inning when the Terps scored all their runs.

The game was scoreless until the Nittany half of the sixth when they pushed one run across.

Bart (Bronco) Brodtkin led off by beating out a grounder to deep short. Don Robinson sacrificed him to second and Brodtkin scored on Dick Pae's two-bagger to left.

The Terps shot into the lead in their half of the inning on two bloopers and George Klinedinst's blast over the left-field fence.

Second-baseman Dick Taylor popped one down the right field line and Don Brown moved Taylor to third with another bloop single.

Then Klinedinst unloaded and Maryland had a 3-1 lead.

Gursky evened things up in a hurry in the Lion seventh.

Lanky John Phillips led off the frame with a walk and Gursky promptly lofted a fast ball over the left field fence to knot the score, 3-3.

But the Lions weren't finished with Terp hurler Bill Turner.

Herbert Defeats Venturi In Sudden Death Playoff

HOUSTON (AP) — Jay Hebert sank an eight-foot birdie putt on the first hole of a sudden death playoff yesterday to defeat Ken Venturi for the $7,000 top money in the $40,000 Houston Golf Classic.

The scheduled 18-hole playoff had moved onto the nineteenth hole after Venturi picked up three strokes on the last four holes to match Hebert's 69, one under par for the 7, 122-yard Memorial Park course.

Rodenhaver on a grounder to short and forced Kikla to sky out to center. Then Brodtkin lined a single over short and went to third as Robinson followed suit.

Nursing a 4-3 lead, Kikla bore down and added to his strikeout total. He whiffed eight Terps during his seven-hit effort.

Gursky and Kikla produced an insurance tally in the top of the ninth.

The big Nittany leftfielder left off with a single and moved to second on Rodenhaver's sacrifice. Kikla scored him with a blast that seemed to clear the wall in left center. However, the umpire ruled it bounced over and Kikla was held to a ground-rule double.

The two-run margin proved more than enough as Kikla set the Terps down without a hit in the ninth.

The Nittanies travel to West Virginia for the second part of their three-game jaunt Wednesday afternoon.

Thinclads Beat Navy--

Brown was the only double winner of the meet, tying Art Pollard's meet record in both the 100 and 220. Brown beat Navy's Pete Golwas in both events, winning the 100 in 9.6 and the 220 in 20.8.

Steve Moorhead set a new meet record in the mile as State swept to a one-two-three finish. Moorhead's time of 4:12.2 erased the old mark of 4:19 held jointly by Horace Ashenfelter (1951), Ed Moran (1959), and Dick Engelbrink (1959).

Howie Deardorff was right behind Moorhead with a time of 4:14.6. The Lion sophomore ran a 4:24 at the Quantico Relays in his only other mile attempt.

The Penn State frosh lost to Navy, 97½-37½, at Annapolis, Md., Saturday.

George Barnhill captured two firsts for State in the 120 high hurdles and 220 low hurdles.

Reed Gets Big 10 Post

CHICAGO (AP) — Bill Reed, Assistant Big Ten athletic commissioner since 1951, yesterday was named by the conference's presidents to replace the retiring K. L. (Tug) Wilson as commissioner.

A ROBE BY ANY OTHER NAME

As Commencement Day draws near, the question on everyone's lips is: "How did the different disciplines come to be marked by academic robes with hoods of different colors?" Everybody—but everybody—is asking it. I mean I haven't been able to walk ten feet on any campus in America without somebody grabs my elbow and says, "How did the different disciplines come to be marked by academic robes with hoods of different colors, hey?"

This, I must say, is not the usual question asked by collegians who grab my elbow. Usually they say, "Hey, Shorty, got a Marlboro?" And this is right and proper. After all, are they not collegians, and, therefore, the nation's leaders in intelligence and discernment? And do not intelligence and discernment demand the tastiest in-tobacco flavor and smoking pleasure? And does not Marlboro deliver a flavor that is uniquely mellow, a selectrate filter that is easy drawing, a pack that is soft, a box that is hard? You know it!

What has Mr. Sigafos got that I haven't got?

But I digress. Back to the colored hoods of academic robes. A doctor of philosophy wears blue, a doctor of medicine wears green, a master of arts wears white, a doctor of humanities wears crimson, a master of library science wears lemon yellow. Why? Why, for example, should a master of library science wear lemon yellow?

Well sir, to answer this vexing question, we must go back to March 29, 1844. On that date the first public library in the United States was established by Ulric Sigafos. All of Mr. Sigafos's neighbors were of course wildly grateful—all, that is, except Wrex Todhunter.

Mr. Todhunter had hated Mr. Sigafos since 1822 when both men had wooed the beautiful Melanie Zitt and Melanie had chosen Mr. Sigafos because she was mad for dancing and Mr. Sigafos knew all the latest steps, like the Missouri Compromise Mambo, the Shay's Rebellion Schottische, and the James K. Polk Polka, while Mr. Todhunter, alas, could not dance at all owing to a wound he had received at the Battle of New Orleans. (He was struck by a falling praline.)

Consumed with jealousy at the success of Mr. Sigafos's library, Mr. Todhunter resolved to open a competing library. This he did, but he lured not a single patron away from Mr. Sigafos. "What has Mr. Sigafos got that I haven't got?" Mr. Todhunter kept asking himself, and finally the answer came to him: books.

So Mr. Todhunter stocked his library with lots of dandy books and soon he was doing more business than his hated rival. But Mr. Sigafos struck back. To regain his clientele, he began serving tea free of charge at his library every afternoon. Thereupon, Mr. Todhunter, not to be outdone, began serving tea with sugar. Thereupon, Mr. Sigafos began serving tea with sugar and cream. Thereupon, Mr. Todhunter began serving tea with sugar and cream and lemon.

This, of course, clinched the victory for Mr. Todhunter because he had the only lemon tree in town—in fact, in the entire state of North Dakota—and since that day lemon yellow has of course been the color on the academic robes of library science.

(Incidentally, the defeated Mr. Sigafos packed up his library and moved to California where, alas, he failed once more. There were, to be sure, plenty of lemons to serve with his tea, but, alas, there was no cream because the cow was not introduced to California until 1931 by John Wayne.)

And today Californians, happy among their Guernseys and Holsteins, are discovering a great new cigarette—the unfiltered, king-size Philip Morris Commander—and so are Americans in all fifty states. Welcome aboard!
