Police Plan Routes To End Float Tieup

To avoid confusion and traffic tieups on Friday night when floats are going to the starting point for the Spring Week Float Parade, the State College Borough Police and the Campus Patrol have suggested the following routes:

Campus fraternities should take their floats west on Pollock Road, turn right on Atherton Street, proceed to Park Avenue, turn right and follow it until it runs into University Drive.

All floats coming from the east end of campus should go up Shortlidge to Park Avenue, turn right and follow the same route as above.

Fraternities on the west end of town (west of Atherton Street) should go up College Avenue to Atherton Street, turn right on Park Avenue and follow the same route as above.

Fraternities from the east end of town should use Garner Street, go east on Foster Avenue and follow it until it runs into University Drive.

These routes were suggested to keep floats off College Avenue as much as possible except during the actual parade, Judy Cheadle, co-chairman of the parade, said.

The starting point for the parade will be near Wagner Building on Curtin Road.

21 Chosen For Honor Organization

Twenty-one students and recent graduates have been chosen for membership in Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honor society for liberal arts students.

Seventeen of the students are seniors or graduate students and four were graduated in January. They will be initiated by Lambda of Pennsylvania chapter on May 17.

Phi Beta Kappa membership is limited to those students taking a certain percentage of liberal arts courses. An all-University average of 3.50 at the end of the seventh semester is required for membership, according to David C. Whitmarsh Jr., of the selection committee.

To qualify for membership in Phi Beta Kappa, the student must take courses in biological, physical and social sciences, the humanities, mathematics, English language and literature, a foreign language and the arts. William Felton, newly elected member of Phi Beta Kappa, said. He added that not more than 10 per cent of those students expected to receive liberal arts degrees may be elected to the society.

Those students and graduates elected are: Edward Abrams, Dorothy Baker, Suzanne Baret, Patricia Berg, Andrea Breston, John Burnosky, Elizabeth Dowling, William Felton, Harold Greenburg, Carolyn Greer, Carole Heisey, Robert Herd, Robert Jones.

Also Leif Mollo, Cynthia Park, John Puhalla, Carol Rife, Arthur Schneider, Sue Smithson, Jackson Spielvogel, Sharon Dias Waxman.

Oil Painting Stolen From HUB Exhibit

An oil painting valued at $75 was taken from the exhibit room on the first floor of the Hetzel Union, William C. Pelton, head of the Department of Security, said recently.

The painting, entitled "Quince Blossoms" was part of a collection presented by Eleanor Zygler, assistant professor of art.

The 16 by 24 inch painting was discovered missing when the exhibit was taken down Monday afternoon, Pelton said. The exact time of the picture's disappearance is not known, he said.

The painting was part of 39 paintings and had either a walnut or cherry frame, Miss Zygler said in her report to the Campus Patrol.

Pelton said the State Police have been called in on the case.
