

Mountie Game Cancelled, Pifer, Myer to Head Wrestlers Lions at Ithaca Tomorrow

Penn State has a pretty good percentage in its baseball games so far — they have managed to play half of them.

The cancellation of yesterday's scheduled contest with West Virginia gives the weatherman four victories so far this season.

The Lions (3-1) were snowed out of games with Lehigh, Army and Ithaca, besides yesterday's rain-out.

The Nittanians get another chance to play Ithaca tomorrow afternoon on the Bombers' home grounds.

Righthander Marlin Biesecker was supposed to pitch against the Mounties, but now Coach Joe Bedenk isn't sure who will get the nod against Ithaca.

"Biesecker has been bothered by a cold," Bedenk said. "We're going to wait and see what happens."

Bedenk could also call on Ed Kikla or Tom Durbin to face the Bombers.

"Any one of them could pitch," Bedenk said, "they're all ready."

Kikla pitched the Nittanians to a 5-3 win over Maryland Monday for his second victory against no losses.

Durbin won his only decision, 3-2, over Lafayette last Saturday in a game that went only 4½ innings.

Bedenk has scheduled a short practice this afternoon and the Lions will leave for Ithaca immediately afterwards.

Ron Pifer and Phil Myer were named co-captains of Penn State's 1961-62 wrestling team at the annual awards banquet last night.

Pifer was 6-3 in regular season competition this year, wrestling most of his matches at 157. He dropped down a weight for the post season tournaments and won the EIWA 147-pound title.

Pifer then swept through four straight matches in the NCAA tournament at Corvallis, Ore., before losing to Iowa State's Larry Hayes in the 147-pound finals. The win gave Hayes his third straight NCAA crown.

Myer was also 6-3 in regular season competition. He did not place in the EIWA's and did not compete in the NCAA's.

Dan Johnson, State's 137-pound EIWA champ, won an award for the most improved wrestler and Johnston Oberly won the Penn State Wrestling Club Award for having the best record over a three-year period.

Mantle Homers Help Yankees Stop Tigers

DETROIT (AP) — Mickey Mantle hit home runs from both sides of the plate yesterday, the second coming with a man on base in the 10th inning and giving the New York Yankees a 13-11 triumph over the Detroit Tigers in a wild contest marked by 31 base hits and 7 errors.

The loss was Detroit's first since opening day and broke an eight-game winning streak, the Tigers' longest in a dozen seasons.

LUCKY STRIKE PRESENTS:

DEAR DR. FROOD:

DR. FROOD'S THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: A little learning can be a dangerous thing—especially in a multiple-choice exam.

DEAR DR. FROOD: I have calculated that if the population explosion continues at its present rate, there will be a person for every square foot of earth by the year 2088. What do you think of that?

Statistics Major

DEAR STATISTICS: Well, one thing's sure, that will finish off the hula-hoopers—once and for all.

DEAR DR. FROOD: I have been training our college mascot, a goat. He has learned how to open a pack of Luckies, take out a cigarette, light up and smoke. Do you think I can get him on a TV show?

Animal Husbandry Major

DEAR ANIMAL: I'm afraid not. To make TV nowadays, you've got to have an act that's really different. After all, there are millions of Lucky smokers.

DEAR DR. FROOD: I am a full professor—and yet I stay awake nights worrying about my ability to teach today's bright young college students. They ask questions I can't answer. They write essays I don't understand. They use complicated words that I've never heard before. How can I possibly hope to win the respect of students who are more learned than I am?

Professor

DEAR PROFESSOR: I always maintain that nothing impresses a troublesome student like the sharp slap of a ruler across his outstretched palm.

DEAR DR. FROOD: You can tell your readers for me that college is a waste of time. My friends who didn't go to college are making good money now. And me, with my new diploma? I'm making peanuts!

Angry Grad

DEAR ANGRY: Yes, but how many of your friends can do what you can do—instantly satisfy that overpowering craving for a peanut.

DEAR DR. FROOD: Could you give a word of advice to a poor girl who, after four years at college, has failed to get herself invited on a single date?

Miss Miserable

DEAR MISS: Mask?

THE RECRUITERS ARE COMING! THE RECRUITERS ARE COMING! And here's Frood to tell you just how to handle them: These representatives of big business are, on the whole, alert fellows. They may be aware that college students smoke more Luckies than any other regular. Let them know that you know what's up—offer them a Lucky, then tap your cranium knowingly. Remember—today's Lucky smoker could be tomorrow's Chairman of the Board.

CHANGE TO LUCKIES and get some taste for a change!
