

Golfers Record Win Over Red Raiders

Special to the Collegian
Hamilton, N.Y., April 28—
The Penn State golf team scored a surprisingly easy 5-2 victory over Colgate here this afternoon.

On a course that played very slowly in wet, windy weather, the Lion linksmen won five matches. They had a chance for a sweep, but lost the final two tilts in extra holes.

"This is not a usual Colgate team. They are much weaker than in previous years, but our boys did play their best golf of the year," Lion Coach Joe Boyle said.

Lion Captain John Morton hit his stride as he defeated Bill Weatherwax, 2-up. Morton was 5-up after nine, but Weatherwax rallied to fire a brilliant 2-under par on the back nine to close the gap.

Bob Rutherford won his fourth match of the year, 7 and 6, over Red Raider Stu Benedict. Rutherford shared medalist honors with teammate Tom Balling. They both fired 75's.

Balling had an easy day in defeating Alan Heuer, 5 and 3.

Lion sophomore Rich Gilison defeated Mike Druckner, 5 and 4, and shot very good golf in the process. Gilison was only 4 over par when his match ended on the 14th hole.

Jack Meredith had the closest match of the Lion victors, beating Frank Bell, 2 and 1. The last two matches were heartbreakers for the Lion linksmen.

Dave Miller finished in a tie with Colgate's John Anderson after the regulation 18 holes. Anderson then won the first extra hole for a 1-up victory.

Lion Bob Swahn was 2-up with two holes remaining, but couldn't hold onto his lead. Swahn lost the last two holes and Richardson took a 1-up victory on the first extra hole.

Today's victory evened the Lions' record at 3-3.

Coach Boyle said that the course was in very poor condition from heavy rains. "I'm surprised at the low scores that were turned in," he said.

After the match, the team left for Syracuse for an encounter with the Orangemen tomorrow afternoon. Syracuse is undefeated in two matches this season.

Penn State Marksmen End Successful Season

After only two years of inter-collegiate competition Penn State's rifle team placed high in the national rifle association eastern smallbore tourney. State's Bob Antanavage fired a 288 of a possible 300 to take first place in the individual competition.

Lion Bill Shaffer followed Antanavage in second place.

State compiled a 5-5 record this season. The Lions defeated Lehigh, Maryland, Carnegie Tech, Duquesne and Villanova and lost to Cornell, Army, Navy, and West Virginia, twice.

Palmer Fires 63, Leads Texas Open

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Arnold Palmer, noted for his clutch finishes, started his move in the second round of the $30,000 Texas Open yesterday, shooting an eight-under-par 63, highlighted by an eagle, to take the lead at 36 holes with 130.

The National Open champion overtook and passed Don Whitt of Borrego Springs, Calif., the first-round leader, like the Texas wind over the 6,616-yard Oak Hills Country Club course.

Palmer, second leading money-winner of the year, got his eagle on the 10th when he chipped 30 feet from a bunker. That put the icing on Palmer's lowest round of the year during which he has won three tournaments.

Whitt wound up with a 3-over-par 74 for 137 and just about shot himself out of contention for the $4,300 first money.

For most of the day Al Geiberger, 23, Santa Barbara, Calif., held the lead. Geiberger came in about noon with a 6-under-par 65 to make his 36-hole total 133, good for second place. Palmer finished five hours later.

Nittany Frosh Host Bisons

Bill Spieth's freshman baseball team will make its initial appearance of the season this afternoon, hosting the Bucknell Bisons on Beaver Field at 1:30.

Last week the Lions were rained out of a game against the Altoona Campus.

Spieth announced a probable starting lineup, but said that he would use his bench freely throughout the contest.

Dick Mance, a classy second baseman, will lead off for the frosh. Bob Eichelsbacher will bat second and play right field. He will be followed in the batting order by third baseman Grier Werner.

First sacker Denny Carpin will hit in the cleanup slot. Gerry Kozusko, the left fielder, will bat fifth. Rounding out the Nittany lineup will be Bob McVicker shortstop; Al Seppi, centerfield and either Bill Manke or Dick Bee behind the plate.

Walt Bloom will start for the Lion Cubs, but Spieth plans to use several hurlers.
