

Harrison Will Ask SGA to OK Mathis

If student government approves, Johnny Mathis, popular recording artist will appear at the University on November 3, Robert Harrison, University party candidate for student government president said last night.

Harrison said he contacted the Musical Corporation of America, Mathis' agency, and was told that Mathis would be on the eastern wing of a tour that weekend and has the night open.

Before definite arrangements can be made, he said, student government must approve the action. Harrison said that he hopes SGA Assembly will meet tomorrow night and if not then, as soon afterward as possible so that he may ask its permission to book Mathis.

Recreation Hall is free on November 3, he said, and Mathis would probably appear there. Harrison estimated the cost of the tickets at $2 per person.

Harrison said that he has had the idea for a long time and has been working on it alone. "But I know the party is behind me," Entertainment programs to provide money for scholarships is a University party plank.

Whether or not he is elected, he said, he will still continue with the program if student government approves.

Campus party also has a platform concerning entertainment and scholarship funds. Neither Dennis Eisman, party chairman, nor Dennis Foianini, the party's candidate for student government president, could be reached last night for comment.

Pelton Warns Cyclists to Stay Off Sidewalks

Students riding bicycles on the sidewalks have created a serious problem, William C. Pelton, head of the department of security said Tuesday.

If the cyclists do not start using the roads it will be necessary for the Security Department to register all bicycles and to discipline student's riding their bicycles on the sidewalks, Pelton said.

At present the State College police require that all bicycles be licensed with them.

In light of the bicycle accident in which a coed was injured Monday night, Pelton said, all bicycles must have lights and reflectors. The Campus Patrol will start ticketing bicycles without lights unless students get this equipment, he said.

State College police have set up a schedule for registering and licensing bicycles. All bicycles operated by students must be registered with the department, they said. A fee of 50 cents will be charged for inspecting and licensing each bicycle.

Registration will be held at the Municipal Building on S. Frazier St. on April 29, May 6, 13, 20 and 27 from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 5 p.m. and May 3, 10 and 17 from 3:30 to 5 p.m.

ZBT, Triangle Dedicate House, Burn Mortgage

Zeta Beta Tau fraternity recently dedicated its new fraternity house and Triangle burned its 10-year-old mortgage.

The Zeta Beta Tau dedication marked the 15th anniversary of the local chapter. The ceremony, was attended by University officials, a representative of the national fraternity and members of the local fraternity and sorority groups, Jay Oberst, fraternity historian, said.

Dean of Men Frank J. Simes said that this is the first new fraternity house built at the University in 30 years. "It is a great tribute to the fraternity system and to the University to have this new house," he said.

Professor Clifford A. Nelson, to whom the house was dedicated, has been the fraternity advisor for 15 years, said Oberst. He and his wife performed the ribbon cutting.

The building of the fraternity was begun in November 1959 and completed in October 1960, Oberst said. It was designed by Louis Slogum, Philadelphia architect, an alumni of the fraternity.

Triangle fraternity burned its 10-year-old mortgage, as a climax to its founder's day celebration held last weekend, Gary Robinson, out-going president, said.

"We realize we were close to paying off the mortgage by founder's day," Robinson said, "and we decided to appeal to our alumni to see if we could put it over the top."

The appeal was a success, he said, and many alumni returned to see the mortgage burned on a pyre on the fraternity lawn.

Meet With Governor--

(Continued from page one) Kurtzman said in reply that the University can float its own bonds without receiving approval from the state.

In discussing the outlook on this year's appropriation, Lawrence said that he has asked the legislature to rise above the lines of partisanship and set aside all other business in order that it may devote itself to education in the next five or six weeks.

He also urged the student delegation to present its petitions to the legislature and suggested that President Walker and the administration also direct their efforts in this area.
