Weatherman Again W. Michigan State Netters Seek 2nd Win Defeats Lion Nine

Penn State's baseball team may not be playing many games, but it sure is seeing a lot of the country.

The Lions (3-1) traveled to Ithaca, N.Y., yesterday to play the Bombers in a game originally scheduled to played April 19.

The weatherman intervened again though, making the fifth time Joe Bedenk's baseballers have lost to the elements.

Wednesday the Lions made it as far as Uniontown, Pa., before their game at West Virginia was cancelled because of a severe rainstorm.

Bedenk has had his differences with the weatherman all season, but the veteran coach is optimis-

"We're bound to play a few more games before the season is over," Bedenk said. "We can't be rained out of all of them. Can we? Both the West Virginia game and the Ithaca contest are cancelled. Conflicts in scheduling make it impossible for the games to be played at a later date. Lefty Ed Kikla was slated to go
