

42,000 Tickets Sold on Cold Night

SEE IT ALL ON THE INSIDE and similar promises rang out constantly Saturday night at the annual Spring Week Carnival. Although much of the yelling was to attract customers, some of it was done as a means to keep warm. The clouds in the background indicate the briskness of the evening.

—Collegian Photo by Paul Lowe

Fire Engine Reviewed

AMERICAN HERITAGE ON WHEELS was seen on Saturday as 36 floats took part in the annual Spring Week parade. Everything from a fire engine to baseball to airplane displays were entered. Four bands also took part in the festivities.

—Collegian Photo by John Beauge

Wheelbarrow Race on HUB Lawn

THEY'RE OFF AND RUNNING on the HUB lawn during the Olympic finals on Sunday afternoon. There were three events for the men, three for the women and three combined. The He-Man and Queen of Hearts will be announced tonight during the Awards Ceremony.

—Collegian Photo by Paul Lowe

CLASSIFIEDS—RESULTS
50c BUYS 17 WORDS

---

factory authorized
VOLKSWAGEN
Sales — Parts — Service
$1624.00
WYNO SALES CO.
1960 E. 3rd St., Williamsport

Arnold Air and Angel Flight
MEETING
102 and 103 Wagner
7:00 P.M. TONIGHT
Class "A" Uniform

Beaux Arts Ball
EXOTIC LANDS COSTUME BALL
COSTUMES REQUIRED
FRIDAY, MAY 12
8 P.M. - 1 A.M.
Coliseum Roller Rink
Donation $1.00 per person
Tickets in Sackett & Temporary and from members of sponsoring Art and Architecture Organizations
Scarab — Pi Gamma Alpha — A.I.A.