Susan Krauss, freshman in home economics from Auburh, was installed as president of Cwens, sophomore women's hat society, last night. The new officers were announced at an initiation dinner at Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Other officers elected are Carole Kersh, freshman in education from Short Hills, N.J., vice president; Shannon Klug, freshman in agriculture from Pittsburgh, secretary; Ellanor Auerbach, freshman in liberal arts from Falls Church, Va., treasurer; Judy Allen, freshman in chemistry and physics from Pittsburgh, ritual chairman; Rochelle Michaels, freshman in journalism from Westfield, N.J., Cwens magazine editor; Margaret Chilton, freshman in liberal arts from Radnor, song leader; and Raven Fennell, freshman in liberal arts from Sandy Lake, cultural chairman.

Voting was done at a meeting two weeks ago.

Members of Cwens are tapped in the spring of their freshman year.

—Most youngsters think there are only three seasons in the year — baseball, football and basketball.

HUB Ballroom Set For Senior Ball

The last formal dance of the year, the Senior Ball will "swing and sway" tonight at a new location — the HUB Ballroom.

In past years the Senior Ball has been held at Rec Hall. The Ball will feature the music of Sammy Kaye and will last from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Weather permitting, the Ballroom Terrace will also be used as a dance floor. In addition, the wing adjacent to the Ballroom will be roped off as a lounge.

The Outstanding Senior Awards will be presented to the 18 men and women chosen during the recent SGA election. The names of the outstanding seniors will be announced at the dance, according to Marshall Sniederma, chairman of the Outstanding Seniors Committee.
