

Blue-White Game Ends Spring Drills

Football fans will get a sneak preview of "Monsters of the Midway," a new shock hit scheduled for a long run next autumn, when Rip Engle's footballers end 20 days of spring drills with the annual Blue-White Game at 2 this afternoon in Beaver Stadium.

Football analysts are predicting an ultra-spectacular production for Lions fans come September, but Rip Engle and his coaching staff have adopted a wait-and-see attitude.

Right now their views go no farther than today's game.

Engle, who will act as a neutral observer today while his staff handles all the coaching chores, is predicting a rock-ribbed defensive battle with little scoring. "You can't expect a smooth-running offense because we haven't worked on it this spring," Engle said. "But I do expect some real hard blocking and tackling."

The coaches have paired off the two teams as evenly as possible with the bulk of last year's starting line—Joe Blasentein, Jay Huffman and Jim Smith—and Chuck Sieminski (a Reddie unit tackle last year) anchoring the Blues. Dave Robinson and Bob Mitinger, this year's starting ends, will steady the White line.

Two members of last year's starting backfield, quarterback Galen Hall and halfback Don Jonas, are playing baseball this spring and will miss the game.

Halfback Al Gursky and center Bill Saul, members of State's Reddie unit last year, and end Jim Schwab and halfback Tony Wayne are also out for spring sports and will not play today.

Engle lost 16 lettermen from last year's squad, including two from the first two teams. Today's game may go a long way to determining who will fill in the vacancies.

One of Engle's most pressing problems is finding a quarterback to replace Dick Hoak.

Right now varsity holdover Pete Liske and sophomore Don Caum appear to have the inside track.

"They've both improved this spring," said quarterback coach Joe Paterno. "Some things Pete does better than Donnie and then there's things Donnie does better than Pete." Liske will quarterback the Blue unit and Caum will lead the White squad.

Ron Coates will back up Liske and Gary Wydman will fill in for Caum. Both are sophomores.

"We have high hopes for both Coates and Wydman," Paterno said. "They've come along fast this spring and they're very close in ability."

Another of Engle's sore spots this spring has been the search for a pair of ends to back up Mitinger and Robinson.

Dick Anderson, a 6-3, 205-pound sophomore from E. Patterson, N.J., may solve half of Rip's dilemma.

"Anderson has come a long way," Coach J. T. White said yesterday. "He's improved 100 per cent."

"Although he's not particularly fast, he's got a great pair of hands and he's a pretty good receiver," White said.

Gerry Farkas, a 225-pound junior from Northampton, Pa., and Ron Tietjens, a 220-pound junior from Blue Bell, Pa., have also impressed the coaches with their work this spring.

Farkas and Tietjens will team up at tackle on the White squad.

Patterson Nixes Match With Liston Until '62

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson said yesterday he would not fight either Eddie Machen or Henry Cooper this year but left the door open to all the other top contenders with the exception of Sonny Liston.

"Not until next year," said the champion of Liston. "I read in the papers where he said he has got rid of some of the people around him. But by next year he should be even cleaner."

Lion Golfers Score 4-3 Upset Over Penn

Special to The Collegian
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 5 — The Penn State golf team upset a highly regarded Penn contingent, 4-3, this afternoon on the Plymouth Country Club course.

The outcome of the match was in doubt until the last ball fell in the cup as State handed Penn its third loss of the season against 12 wins.

Jack Meredith, one of the most improved golfers on the Lion squad, defeated Art Wolfe 1-up in 20 holes to give State its fourth win this year.

Meredith, who won his match against Villanova last week by chipping in from 30 feet on the final hole, came back with a 50-foot chip today.

He was tied with Wolfe going to the final hole, a par five. Wolfe hit a beautiful drive and then put his second shot eight feet from the pin.

Meredith hit his second shot 70 yards short of the green, then flubbed his third shot and still had 50 yards to go.

To everyone's amazement he calmly arched the ball into the cup for a birdie four to tie the hole as Wolfe two-putted. He went on to win the match on the second extra hole.

Lion Captain John Morton dropped his second match in a row, losing 4 and 3 to Jim Graybill, one of the top golfers in the East.

Murray Kleimon, the medalist with a two under par 69, defeated State's Bob Rutherford 6 and 4. Rutherford was only 1 down after the front nine, but Kleimon birdied the 10th, 11th, and 12th holes to put the match out of reach.

Tom Balling was one under par for the 13 holes that he played in defeating Penn's Vince Coviello 6 and 5.

Lion Rich Gilson played steady golf in downing Mike Conviser 3 and 2.

State's Dave Miller scored a come from behind 1-up victory over Art Scheinholtz. Miller won the last two holes to squeeze out the win.

Quaker Stu Lewis defeated Bob Swahn 3 and 2 to set the stage for Meredith's victory.

The Lion linksmen will take a 4-4 record into tomorrow's match with a strong Georgetown team at 1:30 on the University course.

Summary
Graybill (Penn) defeated Morton, 4 and 3.
Kleimon (Penn) defeated Rutherford, 6 and 4.
Balling (PS) defeated Coviello, 6 and 5.
Gilson (PS) defeated Conviser, 3 and 2.
Miller (PS) defeated Scheinholtz, 1-up.
Lewis (Penn) defeated Swahn, 3 and 2.
Meredith (PS) defeated Wolfe, 1-up (20 holes).

Netters Top Bisons For Second Win, 6-3

Special to the Collegian
Lewisburg, Pa., May 5 —

Penn State's tennis team, playing without number 1 man Jim Baker, displayed a well-balanced attack here this afternoon and defeated Bucknell 6-3.

The victory brought State's record to 2 wins and 4 defeats.

Captain John Blanck, playing in the number one slot for the first time this year, started the Lions off on the right foot with a 2-6, 6-4, 6-2 victory over Bucknell's Jim Hand.

After losing the first set, Blanck was unstoppable. He repeatedly threw Hand off stride with his steady baseline game.

Don McCartney, Whit Gray, and Vance Rea were the other Lion singles winners.

McCartney used strong serves to overwhelm Ted Altman, 6-4, 6-2. The win evened McCartney's seasonal mark at 2-2.

Gray had little trouble in disposing of the Bisons' Bob Heuman, 6-2, 6-4. Gray has now extended his winning streak to 4 in a row. Rea had to go 3 sets before downing Doug Herkner. The diminutive Rea took the first set, 6-2, but dropped the second 4-6, before coming back to nip Herkner in the decisive third set, 7-5.

Dwight Moore and John Coldren were the Lion singles losers.

Moore lost to Mike Nachwalter, 6-4, 6-4, and Coldren dropped a 4-6, 6-4, 2-6 decision to Frank Famariss.

State clinched the victory in the doubles by taking two of three matches.

McCartney and Don Benner defeated Herkner and Famariss, 11-9, 7-5, and Blanck and Bruce Derman closed out the Lions' scoring with a 5-7, 7-5, 6-2 triumph over Ted Altman and Bob Heuman.

The freshman netters celebrated their season opener by nipping the Bucknell Frosh, 5-4.

The Lions will meet Navy on their home courts tomorrow at 2.

Twins' Kralick Tops Bosox, 5-1

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Minnesota's Jack Kralick turned in another sterling pitching performance yesterday, stopping Boston 5-1 on a six-hitter.

The crafty southpaw fanned six in winning his second against a lone defeat. The victory snapped Minnesota's three-game losing streak.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Rookie Ed Hobaugh held the Cleveland Indians to five scattered hits in pitching the Washington Senators to a 5-2 victory last night.

The 26-year-old right-hander went all the way in winning his first major league game. He has lost one. He struck out two batters and walked four.

The loser was starter Johnny Antonelli who was making his fourth attempt to win his first American League game. The 31-year-old southpaw worked three innings and gave up four runs on five hits, including a two-run homer by Harry Bright. Antonelli's record is now 0-3.
