

Navy Nips Baseballers, 4-3

Late Rally Falls Short For Lions

Special to the Collegian
ANNAPOLIS, Md., May 9—Unbeaten Navy held off Penn State's ninth inning rally here today to run their record to 18-0 with a spine-tingling 4-3 victory over the Lions. State is now 4-2.

The Middies scored all four runs in the second inning off Nittany lefthander Ed Kikla, then needed a clutch play by Joe Bellino to stave off the Lions in the ninth.

Chuck Davis (10-0) was nursing a 4-2 lead as reserve first sacker John Adams led off in the top of the ninth.

Adams lined a drive off first baseman Dick Cuneo's glove into right field. Dick Pae fouled out to third and cleanup hitter Zeke DeLong flied out to center.

But then Don Jonas connected with a Davis fastball and sent it screaming over Bellino's head in left scoring Adams.

The Middle outfielder chased the ball over a hill as Jonas raced around the bases. Bellino recovered the ball and fired a perfect throw to home plate that held Jonas to a triple.

Davis, one of the best collegiate pitchers in the nation, then forced shortstop John Phillips to ground to third for the game-ending out.

The Lions started the scoring in the first inning when Davis hit second sacker Bart Brodtkin and Pae with pitched balls. Jonas followed with a single to score Brodtkin and give the Nittanias a 1-0 lead over the East's top team.

The Nittanias scored again in the top of the second to take a 2-0 advantage.

Leftfielder Al Gursky flied out leading off the inning, but third sacker Don Robinson reached first on Middle shortstop Chuck Galloway's error. Kikla popped out to first base, but Brodtkin smashed a triple into deep centerfield to drive Robinson across with the second run.

Cuneo led off the Navy second and reached first when Jonas dropped his third strike. Galloway followed with a walk and catcher Harvey Cybul doubled home Cuneo with the Middies' first run.

Kikla got Davis on strikes, but third sacker Hon Reihel's single scored Galloway and Cybul.

Bob Foyle grounded out for the second out of the inning with Reihel moving to second on the play. Second baseman Ron Terwilliger drove Reihel across with the Middies' fourth run with a single to left.

After Kikla walked Bellino, Coach Joe Bedenk brought sophomore Bob Fenton in from the bull pen. Fenton forced Steve Todd to ground out to end the inning.

Fenton surrendered only two hits in the 6 1/2 innings he worked, but the Lions couldn't score again until the ninth.

State Netmen Face Tough Red Raiders

By JIM WELSH
The Penn State tennis team will probably face its toughest opponent of the season today when the netters host Colgate on the Jordan Courts at 3 p.m.

An indication of the Red Raiders' strength is their 5-4 victory over Navy earlier in the season. Navy whipped the Lions Saturday, 6 1/2-1/2.

Colgate is led by Captain Gene Doo, a native of Hawaii, and lettermen John Brandeis, Michael Fisk, Don Rankin, and Wade Rockafellow.

Rockafellow is the son of Colgate Coach Perry Rockafellow.

Jim Baker will return to the State lineup in his customary number one post after missing two matches because of a pulled chest muscle.

Baker was just hitting his stride when the injury occurred and his return to form is a question mark.

The remainder of State's lineup, which was revamped by Baker's absence, will return to normal.

Captain John Blanck resumes his number two slot. He will be followed by Vance Rea, Don McCartney, Whit Gray, and Don Benner.

State Coach Sherm Fogg was pleased with Benner's performance in the Navy match and rewarded him with a starting berth.

The Lions' doubles lineup is still doubtful. Fogg said he hasn't been satisfied with past doubles combinations.

The Frosh netters suffered their first defeat of the year at the hands of Navy yesterday, 8-1.

Number one man Alan Isaacman was the only State winner in the loss. The Frosh record is now 1-1.

Milwaukee Swaps Roach for Thomas

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves, desperate to plug the hole in their outfield and stop their skid, yesterday obtained Frank Thomas from the Chicago Cubs in a straight player swap for Mel Roach.

Thomas thus will become Manager Charlie Dressen's seventh candidate for the left field position thus far in the young National League season which finds the Braves in second division.

Roach, 28, an infielder by trade until he hurt his knee in 1958, had been the sixth. Earning the spot with a .400 batting average as a pinch hitter, he tailed off to .167 in the nine games he has played in left since April 28.

Thomas, 31, has averaged nearly 20 home runs a season during his 10 years in the majors and owns a .266 lifetime batting average. He has batted .260 in 15 games this year and has two home runs and six runs batted in.

Before midnight tonight all 18 major league clubs must be down to the regular season limit of 25 players. They have been permitted to carry 28 since opening day.

Washington and the Chicago White Sox had to be down to the limit by midnight yesterday because they had opened the season a day earlier than the others in the special presidential opener.

The rule reads that 28 men may be carried for the first 30 days of the season. From Aug. 31 to opening day of the following season each club can have as many as 40 men on its roster.

At the start of today's business, the only club officially down to the 25-man limit was the Chicago Cubs. The commissioner's office operates only by official notice and does not recognize player shifts reported in the papers.

Tony Curry, the Philadelphia

MEL ROACH

Phillies' outfielder who kicked up quite a storm in spring training, was shipped to the Buffalo farm club of the International League. An erratic fielder, Curry spent most of the spring on the bench and was hitting only .194 when he got the ax.

Cleveland farmed out reserve outfielder Walt Bond, who was hitting only .042. The acquisition of Chuck Essegian in a deal with Kansas City made Bond expendable.

Kansas City sold Ken Johnson, a relief pitcher, to Toronto of the International League for $20,000. The pitcher had a 0-4 record with the A's.
