

Scholastic Disciplinary Cases Drop

Although enrollment has increased during the past year, the number of scholastic disciplinary actions taken by the University in that time has declined, according to a report issued by the registrar's office.

There were 15,353 undergraduates enrolled last semester; 4,567 or 29.75 per cent were dropped, placed on probation, or given warnings for scholastic deficiency. A year ago 33.66 per cent of the 14,216 students faced similar action.

A total of 133 students or .87 per cent have been dropped from the University, the registrar's office reported.

The College of Business Administration dropped the highest number of students — 32. Engineering and Architecture dropped 31, and Liberal Arts dismissed 30.

Percentage-wise, Business Administration dropped 1.8 per cent, Liberal Arts 1.27 per cent and Chemistry and Physics .79 per cent of their respective enrollments.

Of the 1,086 students enrolled in the Division of Counseling, 58.37 per cent were dropped, given warnings or put on academic probation.

Scholastic disciplinary action was taken against 43.34 per cent of the freshmen men and 30 per cent of the freshmen women. Almost 36 per cent of the sophomores faced disciplinary action for poor scholarship as did 25.79 per cent of the juniors and 14.67 per cent of the seniors.

Only 19 students, 14 of them first semester freshmen, had perfect 4.0 All-University averages at the end of the fall semester.

Two fifth semester students, two third semester students, and one second semester freshman had 4.0 All-University averages.

A total of 74 per cent of the students enrolled had All-University averages above 2.0 and 84 per cent had averages above 1.8.
