Nittanies Drop Twin Bill Grant Fires 3-Hitter To Syracuse, 10-0, 3-2 the showers without retiring a

By JOHN MORR C

Before Penn State went on its three-game jaunt into New York last weekend, Joe Bedenk said that the trip might be a good indication of how the Lions compared with the baseball powers of the East.

The Nittanies found out the hard way that they weren't up to their moré experienced New York neighbors.

Syracuse (12-3) beat the Nittanies twice Saturday, 10-0 and 3-2, after Colgate's Ed Abel had stilled the Lion bats, 7-0. Friday.

The three weekend defeats and Navy's narrow 4-3 win last week make four losses in a row for the Lions, who are now 4-5.

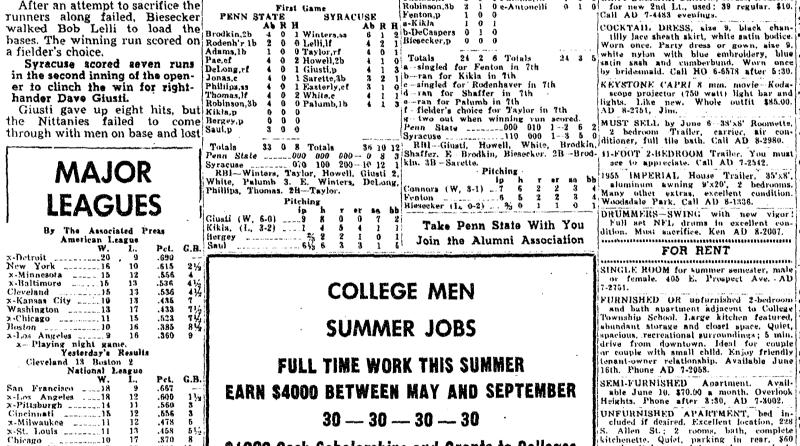

With the exception of Bob Fenton, Bedenk's hurlers were hit hard by the Syracuse batsmen. Fenton held the Orange to two runs in the six innings he worked in the second game, but the Lions lost the contest in the seventh their second straight shutout. With Marlin Bicsecker on the hill. Ed Kikla was charged with The loss dropped Biesecker's record to 0-2.
