

Lion Netmen Whip Mountaineers, 7-2

Special to the Collegian
MORGANTOWN, W.Va., May 16 — The way Penn State's netters have been playing lately, they would probably like to forget their dismal early season start and begin the season all over again.

The Lions won their second straight match here this afternoon by whipping West Virginia, 7-2.

State now has won three of its five matches during May, losing only to eastern powerhouses Navy and Colgate. The Lions' seasonal record stands at 4-6.

The win today was the Lions' most impressive performance to date. The Nittany netters grabbed four of six singles matches and swept the doubles for the first time this season.

Jim Baker, playing number one, defeated Mountaineer sophomore Buzz Ragland in a grueling contest, 8-6, 8-6.

Ragland is a former state junior singles and doubles titleholder and is rated as the best netman at West Virginia in several years.

Two team captains clashed in the number two slot and State's John Blanck came out on top as he defeated Bob Morgan, 8-6, 3-6, 6-4.

Lion junior Whit Gray had little trouble in his match with West Virginia veteran Boyd Warner. Gray won in two sets, 6-4, 6-1, and upped his seasonal mark to 6-3-1.

Number six man Don Benner used an accurate service to finish out State's singles scoring with a 6-4, 6-2 victory over Don Conaway.

Benner, who hadn't won a match all year until last Saturday, has now won two straight. State's number three man Vance Rea dropped a 6-1, 3-6, 6-0, decision to Mountaineer sophomore Chuck Bibbee.

Rea, who has lost four straight, was plagued by his own repeated long shots over the baseline.

Don McCartney was State's other loser. The Lion netter was defeated by Mountaineer letterman Bill Schaeffer, 7-5, 6-3.

The State netmen have two remaining matches this season. They travel to Army Saturday.

HATLESS WONDER—Two Gettysburg defensemen managed to knock sophomore Steve Schrader's hat off during State's 14-4 victory on Beaver Field yesterday. But the Lion sophomore (46) was unstoppable most of the afternoon, scoring seven goals against the Bullets. Gordon Bennett (L) and Lou Meier (R) move in to help Schrader out on this fourth quarter play.

Schrader Fires 7 Goals Against Hapless Bullets

By DEAN BILLICK

Gettysburg lacrosse Coach Curtis Coull pretty well summed up his team's 14-4 loss to Penn State yesterday on Beaver Field when he said, "We just couldn't seem to stop that Schrader." Just for the record "that Schrader" is Steve Schrader and he fired in a near-record seven goals to wreck the Bullets almost single-handedly.

Schrader's seven scores were only two short of the all-time Penn State record set by Bill Hess in 1957 against Penn.

Six of Schrader's seven scores came in the second half and Coach Earnie Baer lifted him with seven minutes remaining or else the Lion sophomore might have broken the record.

"I wanted to keep the score down," Baer said after the game. "I don't know whether he would have broken the record if I'd have left him in, but we were rolling up too big of a score."

It was ironic that Schrader was aiming at the record set by Hess. "Hess has taught me just about everything I know about the attack," Schrader said.

Hess, who was an All-American attack player at State in 1957, is the Lions' attack coach this year and has been spending most of his time working on Schrader.

Schrader's second half outburst brought the Lions from near-disaster to their fourth win of the year. At halftime State held only a 2-1 lead and nothing seemed to be going right.

Gettysburg surprised the Lions with a zone defense and State spent the first half trying to figure it out. "Our zone buffaloed them the first half but they readjusted and we were never in the game after that," Coull said. "Penn State was easily the best team we faced all year," he said. "I don't know why they don't have a better record than 4-5. Schrader and Tom Hayes are certainly two terrific scorers."

Hayes fired in three goals, and for the first time this year he had to settle for second best in the scoring parade. Hayes now has 25 goals and leads the team.

in scoring. Dick Seelig is second with 17 tallies and Schrader moved into third place with 12 scores. All three of the top scorers are sophomores.

Hayes got the Lions' first score at 3:50 when he tallied on the front end of a fast break play. State couldn't dent the Gettysburg zone defense again for the next 10 minutes.

Although the Bullets had the ball in State territory only three times during the first quarter, the Lions didn't score until Schrader hit his first goal at 14:15.

The second quarter was almost a repeat of the first stanza with State dominating the game but failing to score. Rick Bainbridge scored for Gettysburg at 14:45 and the Lions held a slim 2-1 halftime lead.

The Gettysburg score marked the first goal scored against Lion goalie Jim Irwin in 83 minutes of play. Irwin shut out Swarthmore for 53 minutes in his last game.

The second half was a different story though. Hayes scored two quick goals to up the State margin to 4-1 and from there Schrader took over. He jumped the margin to 7-1 before Gettysburg scored and then the Lions ran the score to 13-2.

State fired 58 shots at the Bullet nets, their highest total in three years and the 14 scores marked the biggest offensive show since the 17-4 Loyola win.

Scoring: Penn State: Hayes (3), Schrader (7), Erber (2), Seelig, and Bennett. Gettysburg: Bainbridge (2), Hatch, and Pearce.
