

Lions Host Bisons In Twin Bill Today

By JOHN MORRIS

Joe Bedenk will find out this afternoon whether or not his shell-shocked Penn State baseball team has recovered enough to beat Bucknell in a Beaver Field doubleheader scheduled to start at 2.

The Lions (4-5) have lost four in a row, but they dropped all those games to top Eastern powers — Navy, Colgate and Syracuse twice.

Bedenk would like to forget last week and start all over, and this should be a good time to begin the comeback.

Bucknell brings a 1-6 record into this afternoon's twin bill. The Bisons beat Scranton Monday for their only victory.

"I thought after we won those first few games that we might have a pretty good team this year," Bedenk said, "but it looks like I was wrong."

"We gave those games away on our fielding mistakes and lack of clutch hitting," he said. "I guess we'll just have to start again."

Marlin Biesecker (0-2) will hurl the first game today, but Bedenk isn't sure who will pitch in the second game.

Biesecker lost to Villanova, 9-6, in the second game of the year when the Lions' defense fell apart behind him.

His second loss came against Syracuse in relief as the Orange scored a run in the last inning without the benefit of a hit to beat the Nittanians, 3-2.

Either Ed Kikla (3-2) or Bob Fenton (0-0) is a likely choice to start the second contest.

Kikla has lost his last two starts and was hit hard in both appearances.

Fenton has pitched twice for the Lions. He looked sharp against Navy and Syracuse, but wasn't involved in either decision.

The rest of the lineup will be the same with Don Jonas scheduled to catch the first game and Galen Hall likely to see action behind the plate in the second.

First sacker Barry Rodenhaver, shortstop John Phillips, second sacker Bart Brodtkin and third baseman Don Robinson form the Nittany infield. Dick Pae, Zeke DeLong and Jim Thomas or Al Gursky will start in the outfield.

Don Jonas, Penn State's No. 1 left halfback, was an all-state quarterback at West Scranton High School.

Trackmen Will Host Quantico

Penn State's track team closes out its dual meet season at home against the Quantico Marines Saturday and despite a 1-3 record the leathernecks should provide the undefeated Lions with their toughest competition of the year.

State holds wins over Pitt and Navy in dual meets and Michigan State and Ohio State in a triangular meet while Quantico has lost to Manhattan, Villanova and Navy and defeated the Baltimore Olympic Club.

But the Marines, who boast some of the top track stars in the nation haven't been at full strength all year.

John Uelses, a 15-foot pole vaulter who recently returned from a one-month tour of South Africa, gives Quantico one of the top pole vault combinations in the nation.

Aubrey Dooley, former Oklahoma State star, now competing for the Marines, has also cleared 15 feet.

Bob Carroll, who is consistently over 13 feet, gives Quantico plenty of depth in this event.

Ed Collymore, a former Villanova sprinter, should provide Bob Brown with some of his roughest competition of the year.

Collymore is scheduled to see action in both in the 100 and 220 and possibly the high jump.

Quantico has three distance runners who have bettered 4:15 this year. Pete Close, who edged Lion grad student Ed Moran for a berth on the Olympic team last summer, former Duke star Cary Weisiger and Mike Fleming are available for duty against State's talented milers.

Giants, Senators Win Again

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Flashing to life in the ninth inning, the San Francisco Giants grabbed two runs from Chicago reliever Don Elston and beat the Cubs, 4-3, yesterday.

The winning run scored as Elston walked pinch hitter Jim Marshall with the bases loaded and one out.

Ed Bailey, who crashed a two-run homer in the fifth, had knocked in the tying run with a ninth inning single before 8,469 happy fans at Candlestick Park.

NEW YORK (AP) — The surprising Washington Senators fought off a late surge by the New York

Yankees yesterday and won their fifth straight game 8-7 despite 14 Yank hits.

A comfortable 8-1 lead shrunk to 8-6 in the eighth and finally 8-7 in the ninth but the Senators held on grimly to win.

BOSTON (AP) — Cleveland's Bobby Locke and Barry Latman combined talents for a six-hit, 1-0 shutout of Boston yesterday besting the Red Sox' Billy Monbouquette in a tightly pitched game.

Monbouquette (2-4), who struck out 17 in his last pitching performance, spread six hits and pitched well enough to win.
