

Lion Co-Captain Bob Brown
... makes final Beaver Field appearance today

What other trackmen say . . .

Ass't Navy track Coach Jim Gherdes: "There's no doubt about it, Brown's a great sprinter."
Navy sprinter Pete Golwas: "He's definitely the best on the East Coast and maybe the best in the nation."
Quantico sprinter Ed Collymore: "He's a strong boy and when he gets a good start he's mighty tough to beat."
Villanova sprinter Paul Drayton: "If he gets the competition, I think he'll hit 9.3 this year."

Brown, Collymore Renew Old Rivalry

By JIM KARL
It will be a long time before Penn State comes up with another sprinter like Bob Brown. Triple IC4A winners like Brown happen along about as often as a good movie on television.

Brown will make his final appearance on Beaver Field at 1 this afternoon when State's undefeated thinclads meet the Quantico Marines, one of the top track squads in the East.

And just to make things interesting, Brown will be running against an old rival, former Villanova star Ed Collymore.

Brown beat Collymore in a dual meet last year and edged the Quantico ace in the 100 at the Quantico Relays this year.

Collymore was the national champion in the 220 in 1958. He is scheduled to run in both the 100 and 220 today.

Eight other seniors, all of whom played a part in State's two IC4A victories in 1959, will be making their final dual meet appearances for the Lions.

Besides Brown they include Dick Campbell, Jim Schwab, George Metzgar, Don Davies, Herm Weber, John Musser, Dale Peters and Dave LaHoff.

Campbell will compete although he is still suffering from an ankle injury he received during the Navy meet.

The 6-3, 175-pound senior from Morrisville, Pa., has cleared 6-4 several times since the injury but he hasn't approached his Penn State record of 6-6.

"Just using my leg kick I can do 6-4," Campbell said. "But your ankle is everything because it controls your last point of contact with the ground."

Campbell got off two jumps of 6-6 indoors and was clearing 6-8 in practice until the injury.

Junior Jerry Wettstone has showed rapid improvement, though, and he almost broke Campbell's record with a jump of 6-5½ against Navy.

"All Jerry needs is a little more polish and timing," Campbell said. "One of the reasons Jerry hasn't gone higher is that I haven't been able to push him with my injury. With a good day Saturday I think he might be able to break my record."

Collymore, a 6-2 high jumper, and versatile Dick Emberger will compete against Campbell, Wettstone and junior Barry Amis.

Spahn Gets Award

NEW YORK (AP) — Warren Spahn's no-hit, no-run game against the San Francisco Giants — his second no-hitter in two seasons — earned the 40-year-old Milwaukee southpaw the April award in the S. Rae Hickok Pro Athlete of the Year poll.

Slugging Captain

Zeke DeLong, Penn State's 1961 baseball captain, owns a two-year batting average of .290. The righthander has driven in 27 runs in two seasons.

Donkey Bowl Today

Due to poor field conditions and threatening weather, the game originally planned for 6:30 last night will be played today at 1:30 p.m.
