

Nittanies Host Panthers In Doubleheader Today

By JOHN MORRIS
The Penn State baseball team hosts Pitt this afternoon in a Beaver Field doubleheader that finds both teams struggling to stay above .500. The first game is scheduled to start at 1:30.

The Lions (5-5) and the Panthers (4-3) have been hampered by the weather all year and probably still haven't reached their top playing condition with the season quickly drawing to a close.

State started the season with a bang, managing to win four out of five games between blizzards and rain storms.

But then Joe Bedenk's baseballers lost four straight road games before breaking the streak with a 7-0 win over Bucknell on Beaver Field Thursday.

Bobby Lewis' Panthers have been inconsistent all year, but they hope to change matters with a sweep this afternoon. Lewis' pitching plans are indefinite but Ralph Shutterly is a good bet to see action in one of the games.

Bedenk has three starters ready for action today. Ed Kikla, Tom Durbin and Bob Fenton are available for mound duty.

Kikla (3-2) started the second game of Thursday's twin bill, but the game was called at the end of two and a half innings with the Lions leading 4-2.

Durbin (1-1) and Fenton (0-0) haven't pitched since the Nittanies' disastrous road trip.

The rest of the lineup will probably be the same as the one that opened the first game Thursday.

Don Jonas will be behind the plate in the first game with Galen Hall slated to handle the catching chores in the second contest.

Don Robinson at third, John Phillips at short, Bart Brodtkin on second and Barry Rodenhaver on first form the Nittany infield.

Robinson and Gursky each had two RBI in the win over Bucknell.

The Lions travel to Temple for a single game Tuesday and wind up their season with a doubleheader against Delaware on Beaver Field next Saturday.

Linksmen Seek 5th Win in Row Against Cornell

Special to the Collegian
BETHLEHEM, Pa., May 19
—The Penn State golf team won its fourth match in a row today with a 4-3 victory over Lehigh. The linksmen will try to extend their streak to five when they meet Cornell on the home links tomorrow afternoon.

State boosted its record to 7-4 with today's win.

Captain John Morton, rebounding after a defeat in the Bucknell match, beat Don DeMooy 6 and 5, firing a one over par 73 for medalist honors.

Tom Balling also had a good day for the Lions. He shot a 75 en route to a 4 and 3 victory over Carl Claus.

Rich Gilson, playing excellent golf during the Lions' winning streak, turned back Lehigh's Bob Fuerst with a 2 and 1 victory.

Bob Swahn was the other victor for the Lions. He won the final hole for a 2-up victory over Steve Beck.

Carl, the other half of the Lehigh's Fuerst combination, defeated State's Dave Miller 4 and 3.

Lehigh's number two man, Lee Owens, defeated Bob Rutherford 2 and 1.

The final Engineer victory came when Charles Wentz defeated Jack Meredith 2-up.

Summary
Morton (PS) defeated DeMooy, 6 and 5.
Owens (L) defeated Rutherford, 2 and 1.
Balling (PS) defeated Claus, 4 and 3.
Gilson (PS) defeated B. Fuerst, 2 and 1.
C. Fuerst (L) defeated Miller, 4 and 3.
Swahn (PS) defeated Beck, 2-up.
Wentz (L) defeated Meredith, 2-up.

Cubs Beat Cards, 1-0 On Banks' Pop Double

CHICAGO (AP) — Ernie Banks' infield pop fly that dropped safely for a double scored the only run yesterday as the Chicago Cubs defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 1-0.

The pop double, which Daryl Spencer lost in the sun, scored Al Heist who had led off with a single.

Unheralded Gray Kept Trying; Lion Netters Started Winning

By JIM WELSH
Penn State's netmen close-out the season against two eastern powers, Army today at West Point and Cornell Tuesday on the Jordan Courts.

The best the netters can hope for this season is a 6-6 won and loss record, but State's so-so year might have been a disaster if an unheralded junior hadn't decided to keep trying.

Whit Gray went out for the freshman tennis squad three years ago and was turned away because his style was "too awkward."

But Gray, still using his "awkward style," won the IM championship for two straight years as an independent and again this year in the fraternity division.

Gray's success encouraged him to try out again for the State tennis team this spring.

This time the bespectacled netter had credentials and his unorthodox style was given a second look.

After ten matches he owns a 6-3-1 seasonal log — the best personal mark on the squad.

Gray developed his unorthodox style when he was forced to teach himself the court sport. "When I broke my leg as a boy, the doctor told me tennis would help strengthen it," he said.

"Tennis in my home town isn't very popular, so I had to teach myself everything," he said.

Awkward style or not, his record this year proves he must be a good teacher — and a good pupil.

LaX Team Aiming For Fifth Victory

By DEAN BILLYCK
When the Penn State lacrosse team dropped four straight games during the early part of the season Coach Earnie Baer predicted that the Lions would still end up with a good record.

This afternoon at Hamilton, N.Y., State will make a bid to validate Baer's prediction. The stickmen face Colgate (9-7) in the last game of the year and a win today would give them a 5-5 chart.

The Lions opened up the year with a loss to Navy, but bounced back for a win over Loyola. Then everything seemed to go wrong for the stickmen and they dropped their next four games.

But Baer didn't lose confidence in the team. "I know we have a good team," he said. "I still think we can end up with an even record."

Since then the Lions have won three straight over Lehigh, Swarthmore and Gettysburg. Penn State hasn't won four straight since 1956, but Baer thinks the Lions can end that drought this afternoon.

Baer will use the same lineup that has brought the Lions their last three wins.
