INLOAD ... BUT A WHOLE

BOOK BARGAINS Save

EACH

N SOUTH, ed. by K. M. really like on the Southern Civil War, described by alrs - native, Northern and Dolly Madison, Olmstead, Fanny Kemble and Wade ortfolio of plantation views 10...... Sale $1.98

VORK, by F. A. Horn. Over ffective trade-marks, direct wand labels from all over .35. Sale $1.98

OF LINE ILLUSTRATION . Staniland. The basic drawnechanical aids, the use of s. diagrams, maps, etc., exchemists, engineers et al. 200 5.00. Sale $1.98

AND CARTOONING by Arand shows how the amateur nagazine articles, newspaper ers specific projects from the printing, how to draw and fusely illustrated with ex-..... Sale $1.98

HE DARWINIAN REVOLUimmelfarb. A brilliant study ical and scientific - of Dar-Discusses his background and fic validity of his theories, and reactions of the clergy, I public to Darwinism. Pub. Sale $1.98

UTIER, by Joanna Richard-"life and times" of the versa-painter, poet, critic, eccene author of "Mademoiselle de peer of Hugo, Sainte-Beuve Pub. at $6.00 Sale $1.98

BLANKET DAYS, by T. H. ix war whoops, thundering rce clashes between pro- and the exciting autobiography of and scout who backed his a smoking rifle and a court $4.50. Sale $1.98

F MOTIVES, by Kenneth es of moving men to action can read this book without that he did not know about d his species." - Mark Van Sale $1.98

es - MEET MR. LINCOLN, , Hyaff. A thrilling fusion of is, prints and drawings from a text that reaches into the lar leader. Over 100 illustradner, and the choicest items tions. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.98

ADITION IN AMERICA, ed. ing forth from every page of thology are the tremendous ginality of America's humor. of Mark Twain, Edgar Allen din; the tales of Davy Crock-Washington Irving - a wonith insights and laughter. Pub. ······ Sale $1.98

NY AND MURDER, by Ed-Sixteen thrilling tales of true slave ship that flew the New ag, the Captain Joseph White professors murder, and a de-Lizzie Borden case. Fully illus. Sale $1.98

63. Edmund Wilson - A PIECE OF MY MIND. "Reflections at Sixty" by the great American literary critic. Provocative essays on religion, education, science, sex, the Jews, Russia, plus a brilliant autobiographical chapter. Pub. at $3.50.

Sale $1.98

64. JOHNSON AND BOSWELL: The Story of Their Lives, by Hesketh Pearson. A highly readable and authoritative combined biography of two of the most colorful personalities in English life and literature, by the famed biographer of Wilde, Shaw and Disraeli. Illus. Pub. at $5.50 .. Sale $1.98

65. THUNDER AT HARPER'S FERRY, by Allan Keller. A stirring hour-by-hour account of the momentous raid that inflamed a nation on the eve of the Civil War and forever branded into its conscience the titanic figure of John Brown and the 21 heroic men who followed him in his ill-fated attempt to abolish slavery, Illus. Pub. at $4.95. Sale $1.98

66. BUFFALO BILL AND THE WILD WEST, by H. B. Sell and Victor Weybright. First pictorial biography of the West's most colorful hero — William F. Cody. Indian fighter, hunter, scout, international showman, and darling of royalty and presidents. Illustrated with 137 halftones and 39 linecuts. Pub. at $6.95. Sale $1.98

^{$}2.98 EACH

107. PARIS—The City of Lights. A book of 175 photographs by Andre Martin. Intro. by Andre Maurots, A living portrait of the city which has charmed millions through the centuries. Les Halles, the Moulin Rouge, the Tuileries Gardens, the Opera, quaint streets and broad avenues — all caught with photographic artistry Special $2.98

108. LONDON, a book of photographs by R. S. Magowan. The glorious city which survvied four holocausts, perceptively captured in 150 superb studies of its people and places—Buckingham Palace, So-ho, Trafalgar Square, Picadilly Circus, children at play and busy marketplaces. London in all its loveliness and squalor, gaiety and sobriety, monumentality and anonymity, by day and night

109, FLORENCE, a book of photographs by L. Donati. A picture-study of the uniquely beautiful city—home of Dante, Michelangelo, da Vinci, Boccaccio, Giotto, Galileo, captured in 174 superbly evocative photographs. Captions in English, French, Germans. Special $2.98

110. Herbert Read on ART AND INDUSTRY. With 96 pages of captioned photos. The famous art critic defines what a work of art is, sets forth practical principles for creating beautiful works of art by

111. POPULAR MATHEMATICS, by Denning Miller. The eight mathematical branches from arithmetic to calculus are here explained for actual enjoyment, as well as practical understanding and application. This intriguing blend of simple-as-canbe instruction and historical background from Plato to Einstein, is the perfect Math book for all. 616 pages, profusely illustrated. Orig. pub. at $5.00. Sale $2.98

112. T. S. Eliot—THE INVISIBLE POET, by Hugh Kenner. Although Eliot is the 20th century's most powerful literary influence, his work requires the new critical approach that Professor Kenner brilliantly supplies in this integrated survey of the man, his milieu and his work—the poems, criticism and plays. Pub. at $5.00 Sale $2.98

113. GERTRUDE STEIN: Her Life and Work, by Elizabeth Sprigge. Highly readable account of a remarkable woman, her work, her friends and enemies, and the America and France of which she was a part. Her life touched all the great names in literature and the arts of her time: William James, Hemingway, Wilder, Picasso. Apellinaire, etc. "What a complete and moving and wonderful book!"—Kay Boyle. 17 pp. of illus. Pub. at $5.00

114. ESSAYS ON THE GITA, by Sri Aurobindo. A luminous interpretation of the famous Bhagavad Gita as a practical guide to finding the highest spiritual life on earth. The great Indian thinker has synthesized the thought of the East and West. Pub. at $6.50. Sale $2.98

115. Japan Today—THE BRIDGE OF THE BRO-CADE SASH, by Sacheverell Sitwell. Perceptive picture of the land which has remained the same for centuries in art, crafts and ancient traditions, but which has changed drastically in recent years in its economic and social structure. Contains beautiful word portraits of the people and their occupations, exquisite tea houses, temples and the fascinating cities of Tokyo and Kvoto. 55 color and black and white illustrations. Pub. at $8.50. Sale $2.98

116. COLLECTORS' ITEMS, by Olive Cook and Edwin Smith. Over 250 subjects for the collector, from aquatints to wool pictures, described and illustrated (many in superb full-color) from the pages of Britain's famed "Saturday Book." A masterpiece of modern book-making. Pub. at $4.50 .. Sale $2.98

117. HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHICAL SYSTEMS, ed. by Vergilius Ferm. Informative and stimulating summaries of all the major philosophies and schools of thought, classic and modern, by 41 eminent authorities. 662 pp. Pub. at $6.00. Sale $2.98

118. COLLECTING MODEL TRAINS, by L. H. Hertz. The only introduction and complete guide to this rapidly-growing hobby. Detailed advice for the beginner or old hand on what to look for, where to look, and how much to pay, 195 plates, illustrating over 1,000 models. Pub. at $5.75 ... Sale $2.98

119. THE MIND AND ART OF HENRY ADAMS. by J. C. Levenson. A brilliant and authoritative study of the strange and inaccessible heir of presidents who wrote the greatest history of the United States and two immortal books-Mont-Saint-Michel and Chartres and The Education of Henry Adams. A revelation to the general reader; a helpful guide to the student, Illus. Pub. at $6.00. Sale $2.98

120. THE NEW ARCHITECTURE IN GREAT BRI-TAIN, by E. D. Mills. A detailed study of fifteen representative buildings, considering planning, technical, economic and aesthetic aspects. From houses and churches to factories and flats, these without loss of beauty. Hundreds of photographs and scale drawings. Pub. at $9.00 Sale $2.98

121. THE FIRESIDE BOOK OF FISHING, ed. by Raymond R. Camp. Forty-two selections from the great literature of angling will bring hours and hours of reading enjoyment to anyone who ever baited a hook. Stephen Vincent Benet, Hemingway, Ben Ames Williams and Philip Wylie are among the forty-odd contributors of fact, fiction and an occasional dollop of instruction. Decorative illus, by William K. Plummer, Deluxe library edition.

122. FANTASTIC SOUTH AMERICA, by H. L. Williams. This exciting volume unfolds the drama of each of the countries of the "continent of the future" from prehistoric times to the present: the coming of the first Americans 20,000 years ago; the ravages of the Conquistadores; the civilization of the Incas; natural and human resources; struggles for independence—the whole fabric of their social and economic potentials. 66 photos, Pub. at $6.00.

53.98 & UP

by Gustave Dore. Trans, by I., G. White, A beautiful gift edition of the immortal keystone of world

133. A HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE In Two Volumes, by Harry J. Carman and Harold C. Syrett, both of Columbia University. The whole sweep of American history from our European beginnings through the "Cold War." with special emphasis on economic and social history. Scores of illustrations, maps, tables, appendices containing the texts of important documents. The annotated bibliography has been called the best available for all aspects of our national life. Over 1500 pp. Pub. at $13.50............ Sale—the 2 Vols.—$3.98

134. GEORGE BERNARD SHAW: Man of the Century, by Archibald Henderson. The authorized, but uninhibited, biography of the twentieth century's greatest man of letters. This book is actually a collaboration between author and subject from 1903 to Shaw's death in 1950. Every aspect of Shaw covered in full, the plays the assays the mountained in full, the plays the assays the mountained in full, the plays the assays the mountained in full. covered in full: the plays, the essays, the mountainous correspondence on every subject from vegetarianism to Sovict Russia. Over 950 pages; 76 illustrations of Shaw and scenes from productions of his most famous plays. Pub. at $12.00. Sale $3.98

135. ELIZABETH I AND HER PARLIAMENTS, by J. E. Neale. Here in two handsome volumes are over 800 pages of exciting and authoritative history—the whole mighty drama of the 25-year-old girl who ascended a shaky throne and conquered by sheer power of personality and intelligence. This is thrillingly told by Sir John Neale, the greatest authority on the Queen and her era. Contemporary illus. Pub. at $12.00....... Sale 2 vols. $3.98

136. MODERN GERMAN PAINTING, by H. K. Roethel. 80 illustrations, 60 in Full-Color. Lavish collection of the paintings and graphic art of the Expressionists (Brucke, Blau Reiter, Bauhaus, etc.) as well as all the individual great artists from 1900 to the present, 9½x1278". Pub. at $7.50. Sale $3.98

137. A BOOK OF MADONNAS, by F. Bucina, Fullpage and black and white illustrations of religious masterpieces by Czechoslovakian artists of the Middle Ages. Valuable text on the religious temper and outlook of the time, 9½x13½". Special $3.98

GOOD BOOKS FOR YOUNGER READERS

171. I'D LIKE TO BE, by S. Remes. A Pilot? Policeman? Farmer? Fireman, 15 exciting examples of "big" people at work for the imaginative youngster who wants to play at being "grown up." Illustrated in color throughout. Special $1

172. MIRANDA THE PANDA IS ON THE VER-ANDA, by P. Highsmith. A collection of de-lightful animal rhymes, accompanied by hilarious drawings. (3 up). Pub. at $2.50. ... Sale $1

173. FARMYARD ADVENTURES, by S. Stochl. Snap, the dog, tells about the antics and unusual friendships among his cohorts, (4-Up). Pho-

174. SING A SONG OF SIXPENCE and Other Nursery Rhymes. Over fifty favorite nursery rhymes, each delighftully illustrated in full color, to captivate the young. Every page in color,

175 THE STORY OF HANS ANDERSEN, by Esther Meynell. Illus. with portraits, sketches and facsimilies. A sympathetic account of the life of the great Danish writer, revaeling his unusual temperament and genius. (Ages 10 up).

206 E. COLLEGE AVE.

ELER'S - The University Book Store AD 7-2112 STATE COLLEGE